Robert David Arnott

"On him and his high endeavor
The light of praise shall rest forever"

Bob's stalwart figure alone would have been enough to win the confidence of the Class of 1930, which made him their President for two years. He substantiated this trust by his sincere and hearty efforts to lead his class to the heights. A worthy career in football and several entries into the Thespian field, top his list of attainments. His contagious grin and crisp word of greeting have caused many a heart to tingle. A worthy leader of a worthy class!

Councillor (2), Class President, Football, Marshal (3-4), Dramatic Club (3), Class Play, Council (4).

Doris Edna Pender

"Thy spirit, independence, let me share"

Doris is one of our modern maidens, spirited, clever, and gay. Her great popularity is due to her interest in all our school activities, starting with being our vice-president, to leading us in peppy cheers. Her willingness to attempt anything and readiness to assume responsibilities will help her to gain her goal in Smith College.

Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Chairman Ring Committee, Chairman Junior Class Party, Red and Gray Board, French Club (3), Cheer Leader, Vice-President Senior Class, Marshal (3-4), Editor Red and Gray, Debating Club, Senior Class Play (4).

Dorothy Russell Geiger

"I laugh, for hope hath happy place with me"

Dot was elected Secretary in her Senior year, and has filled this important position very well. Her pleasant, jolly ways have won her the friendship of her classmates. And what compliments her stylish hair-cut has received! It is Dot's ambition to become a schoolma'am.

Track, Basket Ball (2), Red and Gray Board (3-4), Class Secretary, Marshal (4).

Stephen Tenney Woodbury

"By his work you may know him"

Steve rather grows on you. Although quiet and fond of his studies, Steve's a regular fellow and is always ready to try his best. He likes gym work and track. As head marshal, he combines tact with vigilance in this important post. Steve doesn't care much for the social duties of a class officer, but he enjoys tackling the problems of the class treasury, and this year beat all records for the prompt collecting of the class dues.

Band (2-3-4), Junior Senior Reception, Track, Relay Team (3), Class Treasurer, Class Party Committee (3-4), Marshal, Class Play (4).

Sally Ingaborg Aalto

"It's good to be honest and true"

Sally was a loyal supporter of all our school games. She is very keen about skating and therefore spent most of her spare moments in winter at Hospital Pond. Sally plans to enter the Fitchburg Normal School.

Hockey (2-3), Glee Club (4).

Toivo Reinhold Aalto

"Toil, says the proverb, is the sire of fame"

Toi was a marshal and a popular one. A nut for gym work, he belonged to the High School gym team, the Finnish A. C. team, and the class relay team. Toi is a quiet-mannered chap with a million-dollar grin. He isn't much of a booster for social activities, as he is entirely a man's man. One of the best students in the school, Toi has carried two extra studies his Junior and Senior years! He is bound for the General Electric school.

Junior Relay Team (3), French Club (3-4), Class Book Committee (4).

Leonard Fred Adler

"As merry as a cricket"

Leonard could be very good in his studies if he wished, but he is satisfied with just being good. He is quite versatile, and can inform you about airplane motors as well as about fishing and hunting. He leads an outdoor life, and plays baseball and tennis with other novices. As we know, he likes fishing, and believe it or not, has caught fish nearly his own size.

George Edmund Aho

"Fine thoughts are wealth"

George always does well in his studies, and his name has frequently appeared on the honor roll. He is also a sport devotee, with gym work his specialty. As a star performer on the High School gym team, for two years he has graced the parallel bars for Mr. Adler. George hopes to continue his educational work in a higher institution of learning.

High School gym team (2-4).

Edna Viola Alander

"As merry as the day is long"

Who is the girl with the contagious smile? Why that's Eddie Alander. Her name ought to be "Smiles." Eddie knows all the latest songs, which we often hear her humming happily around school. It doesn't sound half bad, either. Eddie is an ardent sports-lover, and is often seen at Coggshall Park.

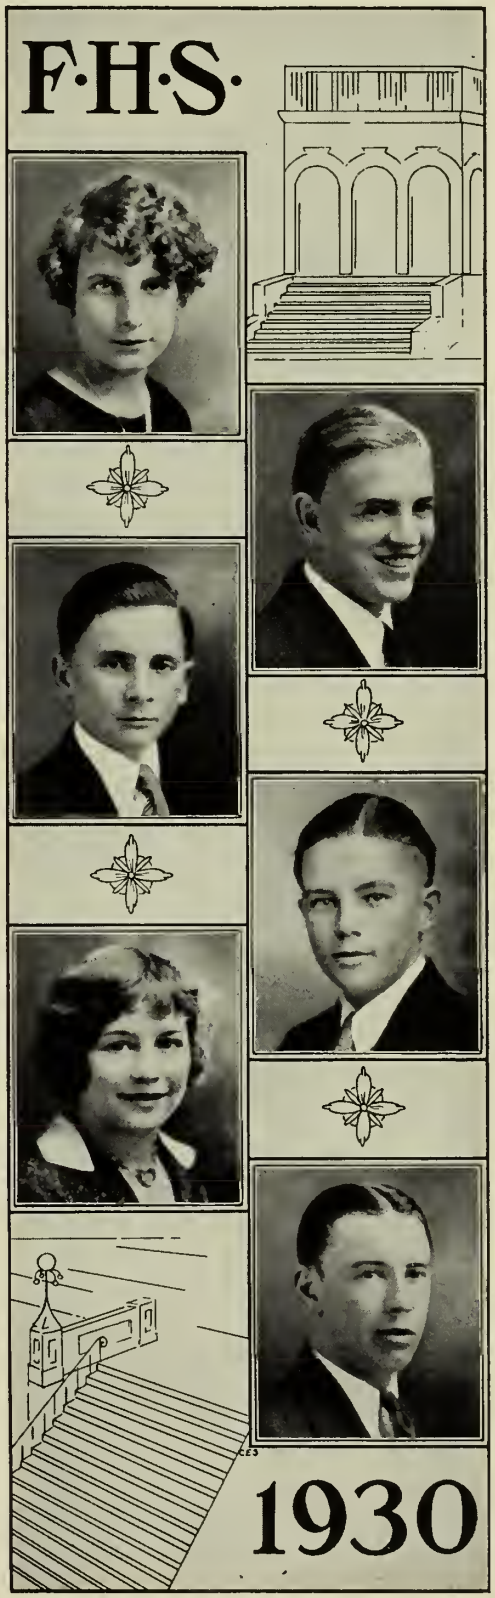

Basket Ball, Volley Ball, Track (2), Dramatic Club, French Club (4).

John Flood Allaire

"A fellow of mark and likelihood"

John has the distinction of being the tallest boy in our class and possibly in the whole school. Besides being a stalwart tackle on our football squad, John also had his share in running the school as a room councillor for the last three years.

Track (2), Basket Ball (2-3), Councillor, Football (2-3-4), Ring Committee (3).

Beatrice Ida Allen

"A smile that glow'd with friendship"

This is our gay, jolly, and happy-go-lucky Beatrice, whose winning smile is always ready. Swimming and skating hold a great interest for Beatrice, but football games take the prize. Of course Mary's Ford and the movies cannot be forgotten. Every other week she did her best to supply Miss Miner's typewriting pupils with the necessary amount of yellow paper. Bee is a good athlete, a fine sport, and a staunch friend.

Marshal (4).

Frances Robbins Allen

"The lark, that tirra—lirra chants"

Frances is our Madame Paderewski, who at almost every assembly delighted her audience with her skillful playing. This hobby she pursued even so far as to give piano lessons and lead a diminutive band. Frances is a happy soul and drifts blithely and unworried from class to class. An active participant in our school life and a delightful companion.

Track, Open Meeting (3), Orchestra, Dramatic Club, French Club (3-4), Glee Club, Writer of Class Song, Class Play, Writer of Class March (4).

James Anastos

"I have no relish for land"

Jimmie has a great enthusiasm for airplanes and radios. We seldom saw him in school without a radio catalogue or an airplane magazine; furthermore, he is planning to enter the Curtis Flying School. He is also the champion soda jerker in school and we have often seen him at work at his father's soda fountain, where no one complains of the service while he is on the job.

Kiki Anastos

"Silence is golden"

Kiki's big brown eyes and quiet, pleasant manner are, we think, her chief charms. Certainly they must be an asset in her father's store where she spends much of her spare time. Kiki's joys are tennis and swimming. Business College or office work figure in her plans so Kiki's time is pretty well mapped out for the future.

Ethel Elli Anderson

"Her stature tall—her manner dignified"

Ethel is preparing to enter some business college and toward this end she works so diligently that she does not have time for school activities. She does, however, like sports, of which swimming and canoeing are her favorites. This girl's greatest enemy in life seems to be a shiny nose and against this foe she bravely tilts with a powder puff.

Ruth Esther Anderson

"But now my task is smoothly done,
I can fly, or I can run"

Ruth is one of those girls "you just can't help liking." A faithful and conscientious worker in everything. Ruth's ambition is to become the secretary of the School of the Spoken Word, where she worked afternoons. She also worked at the Normal School every other week. Noted for her big blue eyes.

Ruth Winnifred Anderson

"Pleasure has been the business of my life"

Ruth may be small, but she certainly makes up for it in other ways. She enjoys dances and parties. During her spare time she sold candy at Chamberlain-Huntress. We hear she likes to read, but she won't tell us what. Is it book reports?
Dramatic Club (4).

Robert Carl Anderson

"A man of hope and forward-looking mind"

Andy is one of our good-natured, easy-going fellows. He hasn't a care in the world, yet he got along fairly well in his studies. His hobbies are fishing and tennis, which he has just taken up. Andy helps at his father's garage, and much to our envy, we often see him driving around in new Hupmobiles.
Senior Class Play (4).

Evelyn May Angevine

"Do well and right, and let the world sink"

Evelyn, after her graduation, plans to work in an office. Surely with the knowledge she has gained here, her pleasing ways and her serious look—especially with her glasses on—she ought to be successful. But Evelyn is not always so serious. She enjoys a good time too and is a devotee of swimming as well as skating.
Glee Club (3), Marshal (3-4).

Frances Pauline Antonelli

"She speaks, behaves, and acts just as she ought"

One of the girls on the quiet list. She is a demure young lady with raven locks and big black eyes. Although Frances did not share in our school activities, she did give her loyal support on all necessary occasions. Frances's willingness, loving disposition, and ready, flashing smile make us believe that some day she will make an excellent teacher.

Theresa Elizabeth Ashe

"My way of joking is to tell the truth,
It's the funniest joke in all the world"

Terry knew her lessons at all times, but how she got them no one knows. She worked for Miss Dunn every other week and also worked afternoons. Terry is always ready when it comes to good times. She was a star supporter of the school bank. Noted for her sweet disposition.
Operetta, Glee Club (3).

Aili Ilona Barglund

"Her voice was ever soft and gentle"

Aili's sweet disposition, her unruffled calm, and her scholastic ability have set an example of perfection for her classmates. One could say much about her various talents which she is too modest even to mention. We trust that her ship will sail none but the bluest, sunniest, and calmest of seas.

Doris Mary Beaulac

"I love music and how I sing!"

We wonder how Doris managed to get to school as early as she did for she lives in South Fitchburg. When it comes to a skating and skiing party, Doris will surely be along. She plans to go to Burdett College.

Dramatic Club (2), Glee Club, Operetta (3).

Ruth Freeman Benere

"She has in mind such stores as silent thought can bring"

Ruth is quieter than her sister. Winter holds no fears for her because all her favorite outdoor sports come in that season. Last year she toted the drum in the Girl Scouts' Bugle Corps, but now she has been graduated from that position.

French Club (3), Glee Club, Dramatic Club (4).

Harold Herman Berg

"A very great part of the mischiefs that vex the world arise from words"

The fact that Harold is not a physical giant doesn't prevent his being interested in sports. In the spring he takes his glove and repairs to the baseball diamond, that is when he isn't looking at a track meet. Harold got good marks and let it go at that. He didn't burden himself with extra activities.

James John Bicoules

"Not too serious, not too gay,
A good fellow in every way"

Jimmie certainly isn't loquacious, but he must be a pretty good fellow—witness the laughs he has with the boys. We know he likes sports for when not working he seems to get much enjoyment from basket ball, baseball, and particularly skating. Jimmie gives the fair sex at school the cold shoulder so we wonder if this dancing that he speaks of is all solo work. Jim expects to enter the General Electric School at Lynn.

Baseball, Inter-Class League (2), Basket Ball (2-4), Boys' Debating Club, French Club (4).

Gertrude Hannah Bills

"Smile and the world smiles with you"

Who ever saw Gert not in a hurry, or without her cheery smile? Gert worked Saturdays in McLellan's and though pretty busy managed to take part in her favorite sports of swimming, dancing, and skating with a red-headed young man. Gert's plans for the future are rather hazy—but with that smile, Gert, why worry?

French Club (3).

Alfred Stanley Bishop

"Good humor is the health of the soul"

Alfred is quite popular among his schoolmates for he has a keen sense of humor which makes him so attractive. He was an ardent printer and every spare hour that he had, he was down in the printing room. He has been so successful in printing that he is now employed by a well-known printing house. Al is quite a runner, and upheld our colors in the annual relay last June

Junior Relay (3).

Frank Joseph Bodanza

"As short and dark as a midwinter's day"

Frank is a very busy individual. We have all seen him tooting his horn in the band, and completing the quota of violins in the orchestra. Outside of school he worked at the Motor Mart. Then he is interested in all major sports, though he is too modest or too busy to come out for them at school. He expects to go to the Worcester Trade School.

Orchestra (2-3), Band (2-3-4).

Ethel May Bonnallie

"Slim as a wand is she"

Ethel is envied chiefly for two things—her slimness and her wealth of long hair. Perhaps skating and dancing account for the former—if so, we will all take them up. Whether to study music or become a nurse is a problem. Ethel hasn't performed for us musically, as yet, so we're not qualified to speak on that score, but we do know that she'd make a mighty pleasant nurse.

Glee Club (3).

John Adler Bosk

"Actions speak louder than words"

We like to watch Johnny lead an orchestra with two drumsticks. In our mind he is the liveliest leader that we have ever seen. He played in a dance orchestra outside of school and pursued his hobby in school by playing in the orchestra and band. It might be said that there are two sides to him; quiet and lively. In a class room he is quiet; in an orchestra, contrariwise.

Band (2-3-4), Orchestra (3-4), Dramatic Club (4).

Jeanette Eva Boucher

"Silence brings friendship"

Jeanette, a quiet member of the Commercial division is Alice's side-kick—another case of me and my shadow. Though she came from West Fitchburg, she was never late for school. She worked in Grant's and is a good business woman.

George Ernest Bowen

"I was born to greater things"

George is one of the classiest basket ball players in the school besides being one of the best tennis players in the city. George could be seen at the local Y. M. C. A. afternoons playing ping-pong with his chum.

Priscilla Anne Lawton Broome

"Her conversation more glad to us than money to a miser"

Priscilla never seems quiet, either in action or voice. But happily she sees life on its bright side; everything has for her its funny aspect, and her laugh is particularly contagious. Reading is her favorite indoor sport while out of doors you will find she is a very good friend to all dumb animals, chickens in particular. Would that more of us were as optimistic as Priscilla.

Glee Club (2-3-4), Dramatic Club (3-4).

Helen Bennett Brown

"In this world it is necessary that we help one another"

This fair-haired charmer was kept busy by her school and part-time work. She was not particularly active in school affairs, but liked football and now and then she went to the movies. She is a great help at home, and is always sweetly smiling and patient. She has something pleasing and elusively different which gathers friends around her.

French Club (3), Marshal (4).

Katherine Midwood Brown

"Virtuous and wise she was, but not severe"

The term conservative might be applied to Katherine, but her sense of humor sometimes overcomes her repression. An excellent student, even Latin scansion, held few terrors for her. As for athletics, basket ball and skating appeal most to Katherine. Cheerful, serene, optimistic, she will never lack for friends.

Chairman Senior Class Color Day, Basket Ball (4).

Earl Douglas Brunt

"Life is labor"

This year we missed his bright green shirt with the lettering just above the breast pocket which marked him as a seller of Thom McAn shoes, and which during his Junior year was a convenient method of recognizing him. Earl is a loyal member of the DeMolay and will, we are sure, be the next champion horseshoe pitcher of the United States.

Junior-Senior Relay (3).

Harold Edward Bryant

"Then he will talk—good heavens, how he will talk"

Harold is one of the jolliest members of our class. Whenever you see him, he is sure to have a big smile on his face. Harold was one of our most rabid football fans and could be seen at every game. He also is fond of hunting and spends a great deal of his time in the woods.

Harold Joseph Burns

"He has common sense in a way that's uncommon"

We have often wondered where Harold got such a sweet disposition, but we have an idea it is from unpacking candy after school. Though he took part in no other activities in school, except to make classes enjoyable, he was an ardent athlete in all lines of sports.

Junior-Senior Relay (3).

William Frederick Burns

"A wit a day keeps the blues away"

Bill, our Will Rogers and special friend of Miss Haskins, was often seen promenading the corridors with Eddie Sullivan. Bill surprised us this year by his football ability. He is very independent of the opposite sex. Watch the movies for further news of Bill.

Band (2-3), Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Debating Club, Football (4).

Elliott Wayne Buskey

"I work, I work, O how I work"

Elliott was one of the busiest members of our class and was always doing something. During the wintry months Elliott managed our basket ball team and in the warmer weather he had his work as a soda clerk. Elliott plans to go South next fall to work in a cafeteria.

Assistant Basket Ball Manager (3), Basket Ball Manager (4).

Esther Caroline Caouette

"Sober, steadfast, and demure"

Esther is our demure brunette. We had to lose her for a time on account of illness, but, we are happy to say, she returned to us again. Esther's leisure time was pretty well filled up with playing nurse maid, without mentioning hiking and sliding.

Anthony Joseph Casimo

"A gentle boy with soft and silken locks"

Tony is such a quiet fellow that he has to be coaxed before he will tell us anything. He greatly aided committees who were sponsoring dances and parties for he displayed a great business mind for such enterprises. He calls tennis his favorite hobby and spends most of his afternoons in spring, summer, and autumn on the tennis courts. He has been a member of the tennis team all three years while in High School.

Tennis (2-3), Debating Club, Dramatic Club (3-4), French Club, Class Book Committee (4).

Carolyn Ida Caswell

"The playful smile around the dimpled mouth"

Carolyn's slogan, as can be judged from the smile, seems to be, "Why Worry?" She certainly does live up to it. Carolyn was one of our most rabid football fans. More than one official has felt the sting of her wrath. Though living just a little on this side of the Lunenburg line, she defies anyone to say that she comes from the sticks.

Glee Club (2-3-4), Art Club (4).

Doris Madelen Cattel

"Our patience will achieve more than our force"

Doris is one of those little persons who, although not heard from much, has a force, that if occasion arises, makes itself felt. Although she is quiet, we cannot attempt to predict what the future holds for her, but we can say that whatever it may be it will come through determination and perseverance.

Glee Club (3).

Nunzie John Celona

"The noblest mind the best contentment has"

Success comes in cans and that is why Nunzie drives a Ford. Any day after school, he could be seen rattling off in his boat to spend a calm, pastoral afternoon at home. Nunzie surprised us by his quietness about school. This dark-haired son of the south (Fitchburg) may be distinguished from the rest of us by his cubical capacity.

Football (2-3-4).

James Whitcomb Chalmers

"He never is alone that is accompanied with noble thoughts"

The possessor of a contagious optimism, a good student, always smiling, and an excellent athlete. As a basket ball star, he's a wow and he is so fast on the cinders that he gives his shadow a ten-yard handicap and beats it to the tape. You will find Jimmy has a heart of gold, in which, like a hotel, there's always room for one more.

Track, Basket Ball (2-3-4), Football, Glee Club, Pickles, Junior-Senior Reception, Relay Team (3), Councillor (3-4), Marshal, The Class Play, Business Manager Class Book (4).

Mabel Helena Clark

"Sit closer, friends, and hear my views"

We sometimes pause to wonder how it comes about, when we think of the sign in room 49—"Accuracy, not speed," for Mabel's report card shows that it pays to be accurate. Her oratorical ability did much to stimulate interest in the Debating Club meetings. She is a girl who can carry home the prize from a bridge party. Mabel is a true friend, always ready to lend a helping hand, and always cheerful.

Volley Ball (2-4), Dramatic Club, Debating Club (2-3-4), French Club (3-4), Class Book Committee, Prize Debate, Senior Class Play, Property Manager French Play in Open Meeting (4).

Marjorie Ona Clark

"I do loathe explanations"

Marjorie does not say much in school, but you ought to hear her among her friends. She never worries over her lessons. During her spare time, she takes care of children. Marjorie plans to go in training. Her hair is the envy of many a maid.

Walter Clark

"Shy, diffident, yet, withal, a bit of a rogue"

Walter, is a quiet, blond young man whom we suspect of mischief—he's so convincingly innocent! They say that an idle brain is Satan's workshop, but this apparently doesn't apply to Walter, for he tells us that he works—outside of school-hours. We know that swimming keeps him pretty busy during the good old summertime.

Clayton Gibson Cleverly, Jr.

"He is always laughing for he has an infinite deal of wit"

Clayton enjoyed school hugely and plans to continue it indefinitely. With his ready jokes and cheerful smile, he was a powerful enemy to glumness, which has no place in a class that Clayton attends. He likes sports, especially football. His greatest hobby is to fish and read hair-raising dectective stories.

Squad B Football (2-3), Junior Relay (3), Dramatic Club (3-4), Squad A Football, Class Play (4).

Bernadette Evelyn Clouthier

"So buxom, blithe, and debonair"

Bernadette believed that the outside activities sponsored by the High School ought to be supported, which belief she maintained in every way possible. She goes in seriously for basket ball and track. She likes to dance, swim, and play tennis.

Track (2-3), Basket Ball, Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Art Club (3), Glee Club, Debating Club (4).

Elsie Marie Collin

"Softly speak and sweetly smile"

Elsie would rather be seen than heard. However, she always adds to the fun when she's around. She worked every other week in the school bank and afternoons for Lesure the florist. Elsie enjoys hiking and skating. She intends to go to a designing school.

Harris Manning Colpitts

"His works and words and fashion, too, all of a piece,
and all are clear and straight"

That school is a place for study and not for play is the impression we receive as Harris stands marshaling opposite Room 5. We know, for all he is so stern and serious, he's the very spirit of fun. The occupants of the Shirley Limited were transformed into a merry lot by his witty remarks. The latter hours of Harris's day are spent at the Central Hardware Store. Evidently Harris enjoys printing for he hopes to work later at the Fitchburg Sentinel.

Band, Dramatic Club (2-3), Marshal (3-4).

Doris Verna Cooke

"Pretty, witty Dot"

Doris is all joy which bubbles forth in spite of her attempts at gravity. She studied a little, danced a great deal, and played basket ball sometimes. Under this joyousness, however, lurks a capable mind and a serious intention of training at Burbank Hospital for the responsible position of nurse.

Basket ball (3).

William Thomas Costello

"I am sober as a judge"

As seen by his classmates in school, Bill appears to be a quiet unassuming fellow but once outside the mightly portals he changes to the fun-loving type. He was a faithful member of "The Outdoor Boys," a well-known South Side organization. Bill was a great sports follower and during the spring months could often be seen at Crocker Field, working out on the track. Being a persistent fellow, who knows but what he may be a future Olympic star?

Junior Relay Team (3).

Edith Louise Couch

"Of surpassing beauty and in the bloom of youth"

Oh! those eyes, she can't make them behave at times. Edith always has a ready smile for everyone. She is well liked by all those who know her. Her favorite hobby is attending football games. She worked at the Normal School every other week and we did not see half enough of her.

Glee Club, Operetta, Class Flag Committee (3), Marshal (3-4).

Robert Lee Cushing

"He would shake hands with a king upon his throne
And think it kindness to his majesty"

Robert is one of our big, manly heroes, and as you would expect, likes all sports and hopes to go to Dartmouth. His activities have been many, but his part in the operetta in 1929 was his favorite one. Robert is a fun-loving, genial fellow, with a flashing smile and ready laughter. Interested in aviation.

Squad B Football (2), Basket Ball (2-3-4), Junior-Senior Reception, Junior Relay, Operetta (3), Marshal (3-4), Tennis, Councillor, Class Book Committee, Class Play.

Florence Mae Daggett

"Her air, her manners, all who saw admired"

Florence is one of the busiest and best-liked girls in our class. We shall always remember the wonderful work she did for us, as chairman of our Senior Dance, last Thanksgiving. She was an ardent supporter of High School athletics and could always be found ushering at our basket ball and football games. During the spring and summer months she could often be seen playing tennis at Crocker Field. We don't know whether she favors the opposite sex, but we have our suspicions. Tennis, Secretary Dramatic Club, Track (2), Junior-Senior Reception, Basket Ball (3), Marshal (3-4), Hockey, Senior Class Dance Committee, Senior Class Play, Class Book Committee, Debating Club (4).

Margaret Ava Daley

"There's mischief in her eyes, I know!
I'm positive I saw her wink!"

Margaret is one of the most popular girls and the reason why is not hard to find. Just mark her dancing blue eyes, smiling lips, and dark curly ringlets. She was an enthusiastic football rooter, that is, when her time was not taken by Mr. Casey, a Leominster attorney, for whom she worked. Margaret is very fond of dancing and never misses a high school dance, for all she comes from distant Shirley.

Glee Club (3).

Carroll Eugene Dalzell

"Study makes the man"

Heads up! Eyes erect! "West Point" is coming. Dalzell came to us our senior year direct from the woods of Maine with his original dialect. We have all found him a perfect gentleman, who attends to his own affairs and lets other folks alone. He is well liked by all who have come in contact with him. He certainly showed an ambition for study.

Charles Horace Darling

"Steady of heart, and stout of hand"

Hunting and fishing appeal greatly to Charles. Every year he is always among the first to enjoy these pastimes. He is a quiet sort of fellow and a consistent plugger. Outside of school, Charles worked at a bottling establishment.

Mary Ann Darling

"Patience is a flower that grows not in every one's garden"

Mary is a girl who is truly quiet. She picked her friends well and made several lasting friendships during her four years in the High School. At every football game, be it rainy or fine, hot or cold, Mary could be found. She was a good example of a loyal rooter and an enthusiastic football fan.

Edward Russell Daulton

"The character of a man is known from his conversation"

Eddie comes from our most noted suburb, West Fitchburg. He helped our football team greatly this fall. In and about school he appeared to be a quiet chap, never saying much and tending to nobody's affairs but his own. His quiet ways and his sincerity have won him a host of friends. He is not a ladies' man.

Football (3).

Harvey Edward David

"My talents run in many directions"

Harvey can put pep into a hundred students at a dance simply by tickling the keys of his beloved instrument, the piano. Harvey has shown what he can do outside of school by being a member of the interclass baseball teams and running in the Junior-Senior Relay.

Junior-Senior Relay (3), French Club (3-4).

Margaret Dorothy Dennihan

"Love, sweetness, goodness, in her person shine"

Margaret says she just loves Glee Club! No wonder she does, for music is one of her hobbies. She often entertained us at assemblies with her violin playing and her fine alto voice. Margaret is also fond of painting and dancing. She plans to enter the Nason Institute.

Orchestra (2), Chairman, Junior Flag Committee, Junior-Senior Reception (3), Concert Mistress and Librarian of Orchestra (3-4), Secretary and Treasurer Art Club (3-4), Senior Musicale, Dramatic Club, Glee Club, Marshal (4).

Dana Edwin Dickinson

"Smooth words make smooth ways"

Dana does more or less hard work, at least, he works hard outside of school. He spends his afternoons in the office of the Worcester Telegram and Gazette where we hear he has a rather lucrative job. Dana is a quiet boy and takes girls as matter of fact, but he enjoys a bit of fun every now and then, in school as well as outside.

George Francis Dignam

"My only books,
Were woman's looks,
And folly's all they've taught me"

George is that good-looking fellow who shone at all our socials. He peddled gasoline as an avocation. Noted for his easy-going ways and excuses.

Dramatic Club (2).

Bertram Ernest Donais

"A good reputation is a great charge"

Bertram, one of the smaller members of our class is an ardent sportsman, although he did not participate in school sports. His hobby is raising dogs and in this we sympathize with him. We also hear that he is interested in a young, dark-eyed, and talented violinist of the orchestra.

Domenica Anna Drago

"A gentle maid with quiet modest ways"

Quiet and unassuming, Domenica goes about her daily tasks with an ever-ready smile and friendly greeting. To expound the mysteries of reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic is her ambition and her sympathetic nature will aid her success.

Glee Club (3).

Bernardine Ida Driscoll

"Give me romance, and I'll dispense
With the rodomontade of common sense."

Debating is one of Bernardine's marked abilities and without her the strength of the Debating Club would have been decidedly lessened. Her power of argumentation is not entirely confined to the club for an occasional glance in Room 26 during lunch period has shown her holding spirited conversation with some attentive male listener.

Open Meeting (2), Dramatic Club (2-3), Debating Club (2-3-4), French Club (3-4), Glee Club, Prize Debate (4).

Irene Elizabeth Dufort

"Those eyes, soft and capacious like a cloudless sky"

We used to hear this mellow-toned songster trilling in our assemblies, but for some years now she has deprived us of that pleasure. She was an eager participant in our club life and an enthusiastic football fan.

Vice-President French Club, Vice-President Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Marshal, "May the Maiden" (4).

Vincent Elliott

Vinnie's bent certainly must be mechanical, since he is apprenticed as a draftsman at Simond's Saw and Steel Co. He finds great delight in fooling with contraptions such as automobiles and machinery. His plan is to complete his apprenticeship, which is to last approximately one year and a half. He tells us that he keeps fit by climbing mountains.

Armas Victor Erkkila

"Sturdy, faithful, and versatile—an example of manhood"

Armas is a natural student to whom studies come easily. Then again, Armas was a star track athlete, and chairman of athletics on the "Red and Gray." To fill up his spare time, Armas worked outside, practised the piano, banjo, and clarinet, played in several orchestras, and what have you! But Armas thinks he's shirking, and next year is going to take a course at Worcester Tech. on top of all the rest!

Red and Gray (3), Orchestra (3-4), Chairman of Athletics, Red and Gray, Band, Class Book Committee (4).

John Joseph Esielionis

"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows!"

Johnny is one of our fair-haired idols, a jocund, happy-go-lucky sort of fellow. Although John lives a long distance from the city, he arrives bright and early, each morning for school. He manages his job as clerk and chief-butcher of Shirley mighty well. In his spare moments, John likes to fish, trap, and hunt.

Glee Club, Operetta, Junior Relay (3), Senior Class Play (4).

Lauri William Eskeli

Trying to find out anything about Lauri's private life is like peeling an orange without breaking the skin. However, we do know that Lauri can draw a wicked bow in the orchestra. In school we find him an intensely attentive pupil. For recreation, beside studying, Lauri acts as clerk at the Co-operative Grocery Co.

Orchestra (2-3-4), Dramatic Club (3-4), Football team, Squad B (3), Football (4).

Marjorie Esther Ferris

"The joy of youth and happiness her eyes displayed"

Marjorie lives away up on the hill back of High School so that she can get to school quicker than most of us if she slips. She had let her hair grow, but has cut it again, thus proving that not everyone with long hair keeps it. Marjorie was an ardent hockey fan and for the last two years played on the girls' hockey team.

Track (2), Hockey (2-3).

Beatrice Evelyn Fitzroy

"A smile will go a long, long way"

Bea's smile is contagious, her enthusiasm refreshing, and her cheer never fails to comfort. Besides dancing and reading, Bea always has time for her music. Whatever her mood, she finds in her piano a constant and sympathetic friend.

Dramatic Club (4).

Barbara Elizabeth Francis

"Beauty is truth; truth, beauty"

Barbara's witty and often satirical remarks keep her intimate friends in constant high spirits and sometimes cause the lunch room to be filled with unrestrained howls of laughter. She has become a devotee of the new tap-dancing fad, and has entertained us several times with the fascinating rhythm of this dance. Barbara is so outspoken that you will receive no disguised or misleading words from her—she says what she means!

Dramatic Club, Junior-Senior Reception (3).

Lucile Rebecca French

"To know her is to understand her"

The sign on her door always reads "Busy." Her activities range all the way from singing in the village choir to playing the Irish maid in a stirring melodrama. To speak ill of red hair in her presence is a social error. Oratory is one of her accomplishments, and her musical talents are much sought after. Sincere, frank, and ambitious.

French Club, Debating Club, Class Book Committee (4).

James Andrew Gaffeney

"And let a scholar all Earth's volumes carry,
He will be but a walking dictionary"

Jimmie's formula for life must be "happy-go-lucky" for we certainly cannot find anything, not even an examination, that would destroy the smile on his face. Jimmie spent most of his time after school experimenting with old cars, playing football or baseball, and sitting in Room 26.

Dramatic Club, French Club (3).

Catherine Agnes Gaynord

"Her smiling eyes with simple truth were stored"

Gentlemen are supposed to prefer blondes, but we are inclined to disbelieve this when we see the boys around Catherine. Her winning ways have won her many admirers among her classmates. Her afternoons are spent easing the pains of the stricken in a doctor's office. Catherine and Margaret are especially good friends as they both come from the same section.

Ronald Frederic Gilbert

"His discourse was like tiny drops of water, but meant oceans"

We didn't hear much from Ronald Gilbert during his High School career. Ronald studied hard, but didn't say much. He was an excellent student in Mechanical Drawing. Ronald hopes to go to a trade or textile school after working a year.

William Joseph Gillis

"His own opinion was his law"

William Gillis, one of our foremost debaters, has appeared in several debates and short plays and has borne himself well throughout. William was no mean scholar and with a little more effort, could have been among the best of them. Gillis was also very active in sports, and was a member of the football team.

Football (2-3-4), Debating Club (3-4), Senior Class Play.

Marion Frances Gorman

"Come, pensive Nun, devout and pure,
Sober, steadfast and demure"

Marion belongs to that group of quiet workers who have been in our class since we left B. F. Brown school. May you find enjoyment as well as enlightenment, Marion, in your course of study at the Wilfred Academy of Beauty Culture. Here we hope to visit you, as all members of the fairer sex do, when you are established on Prichard Street. Your chosen profession should be profitable.

Dramatic Club (4).

Barbara Louise Grant

"Who can be wise, amazed, temperate and furious, loyal and neutral in a moment?"

Let's hope that Barbara, when she gets to be a telephone operator, will be careful about the numbers she gives. This year Barbara typewrote and sent out all the bills of the Norfolk Store, Inc. Barbara's a devotee of dancing and swimming, too.

Dramatic Club, Glee Club (3).

Sarah Huldah Guilford

"I awoke one morning and found myself famous"

Huldah was a bright part-time commercial student. When no one else could answer a question she could always be relied upon to save the honor of the class. She is as fond of good times as she is of getting A's and B's on her report card. Huldah plans to go to college and later to be an accountant.

Monument Decoration Committee (2-3), Glee Club (3), Dramatic Club (4).

Elinor Josephine Hackett

"The sparkle of a dark eye is always a riddle"

Elinor makes a very pleasant clerk at M. T. Cummings Co. Every day after school for some reason or other she could be seen sitting with Carolyn on the pedestal opposite the post-office. Elinor was a faithful supporter of our football games and she even went to all the outside games. She is planning to go to Fitchburg Business College next year.

Lauretta Rose Hamel

"I laugh, for hope hath happy place for me"

Lauretta is blessed with dimples. She is very fond of skating and frequently could be seen at St. Joseph's Skating Rink. We know why Lauretta got to school early; her boy friend has a car.

French Club (4).

Raymond Joseph Hamel

"I am as sober as a judge"

Raymond is a quiet member of our class who spent all his spare time working in the shoe department of Parke-Snow, Inc. He is interested in gathering pictures and record feats of strong men. Since he is interested in strength, health, and physical culture, we hope he will be able to follow this as his life work.

Orchestra (2-3-4), Gym Team (4).

Lily Alice Hancock

"Her pale blue eyes smiled constantly"

Lily is a quiet little girl with a crown of red hair. She came from Waites Corner, and made a daily dash for the morning trolley in order to arrive on time. Her favorite hangout in school was at the end of the corridor on the third floor, where, during lunch period, she held an animated conversation with her numerous friends.

Ethel Della Handley

"The enticing smile; the modest seeming eye"

Here she is! Ethel swings a mean racket and never gets excited. She won the girls' tennis championship cup for two years. Ethel is planning on college next year, but has no definite one in mind.

Girls' Tennis Championship (2-3).

Marion Blanche Hanks

"Honesty is the best policy"

Like so many great people, Marion comes from a small town. In her native Westminster, she spends her spare time saying "Number, please" and "I'll ring them again." Marion is not gifted with a silver tongue and we only hear from her occasionally. We expect in the future to see her reading temperatures and taking pulses for we have heard her express an ambition for the nursing profession.

Francis Joseph Hanley

"Carefree as the wind am I"

Francis and his pals worry not at all. There may be lessons, say they, but why cause distress by preferring one. Pink teas, however, are not in his line. Football, sayeth he, is a man's sport and therefore away went Francis to practice. Swimming, too, engages his interest. When not in pursuit of these manly acts, his time is free, but that's all he says.

Football (2-3).

Gertrude Kyllikki Hannula

"A noble mind with a noble heart"

Gertrude is a real ruralite. In this day and age when we all are or want to be city dwellers, she lives on a real farm. When in the grades, she played volley ball every chance she got so that now it has become her hobby, with basket ball a close second.

Walton Albert Harris

"Women? I never heard of them before, what are women like?"

Walton is one of our country lads, but he managed to get to school every morning providing the Shirley bus was running. We hear, too, that he did a little more than his share in keeping the Limited in a continual upheaval. We often wonder when Walton did his studying for if he wasn't out riding in his huge bespattered car, he was sure to be out hunting. He intends to go to Burdett College.

Glee Club (2-3).

Helen Gorman Hassett

"Intermingle jest with earnest"

Helen may seem serious, but when you come to know her, you discover that she is just as full of fun as anyone else. Her hobbies are reading, swimming, and boating. She has a canoe, and often last summer we saw her out canoeing on Lake Winnekeag. Helen expects to go to Law School, probably Portia in Boston.

Shirley Libby Hatch

"Her cheeks mantle with mirth"

Class rooms and study halls would be peculiarly unfamiliar without Shirley's expressive giggle. Judging by her report card, we would say that Shirley knows her Spanish. In a few years hence when we feel the need of a few sugar coated pills to cure our ailments, we may visit Dr. Shirley Hatch, for such is to be her chosen profession.

Glee Club (3).

Priscilla Elizabeth Healey

"I laugh'd, and danc'd and talk'd and sang"

Priscilla evidently likes children as she was often seen walking with some in her Junior year, but we think that she later changed her views upon the subject. Priscilla was a loyal supporter of the High School football games. We noticed that she attended the games this year with an ex-football player. She is also fond of tennis and swimming.

Glee Club (3).

Senia Mary Heikkila

"Cheerful company shortens the miles"

Senia is outstanding in girls' sports. She was on the Basket Ball, Volley, and Track Teams. She also excelled in skating and swimming. She is a quiet, cheerful girl. A cross word has never been heard from her lips. Senia is bright in her studies.

Basket Ball, Volley Ball, Track (3).

Gladys Margaret Heinig

"Laugh and give cheer as you go"

Gladys is one of our commercial part-time students, who worked at the Northern Worcester County Public Health Association. She also worked at Brockelman Brothers on Saturday at the Candy Counter. She is a member of the Turnverein and is a good athlete. She plans to work in an office when she graduates.

Virginia Heywood

"Such easy greatness, such a graceful port"

Ginny has gone through High School doing her share in several activities. Her dancing is to be remembered when we recall operettas and entertainments. We have often heard her sing and have also read her stories in the Red and Gray. Ginny's amiable self and pleasing personality, her ever ready willingness to help, prove her interest in her friends and her work.

Dramatic Club, Glee Club (2-3-4), Belle of Barcelona, Pickles (3), Annual Concert, Festival of Bagdad (4).

Hilkka Tuulikki Hietaranta

"Thy purpose firm is equal to the deed"

Hilkka and Sally got their morning exercise by walking to school from away out Blossom Street. Hilkka likes dancing very much and spends her Saturday nights at the dances. During the afternoons Hilkka acted as bookkeeper for a garage on Mechanic street.

Glee Club (3).

Margaret Mary Hilferty

"Grace is in all her steps! Heaven in her eye"

Margaret is one of the vivacious femmes of the class. Pretty, charming, a good dancer, and possessing a lively sense of humor, she is very popular with her classmates. We hear the chosen one is a working boy! She spends most of her spare time chasing balls on the Alpine Golf Course.

Glee Club, Operetta (3).

Mary Hird

"She is a winsome wee thing"

Our Mary is a petite, unobtrusive person. She is happy with her friends whom she has won, with her beautiful smile and gentle manners. She worked, studied, and took part in activities with quiet enjoyment, laughing inwardly, we fear, at the silly bustle of the rest of us. She plans to go to Normal school and to take up the irksome business of teaching.

French Club, Dramatic Club, Glee Club (4).

Henry Heimo Hirvonen

"I am a part of all that I have met"

Hennie, one of the few hunters of the High School, picks his game in the woods of Shirley, through which he has trudged endlessly in search of animals, fish, or fowl. He does his own photographing and develops his own proofs and prints. Through this medium, he has interested his friends at school in his hobbies.

Edward Simpson Hooper

"Modest, yet all of a king is he"

Eddie is one of the stellar athletes of our class. He shone in class as well as on the gridiron or cinder path. Eddie ran the best time for our class in last year's Junior-Senior race. We hope he will repeat his fine performance again this year. We understand Eddie likes the fairer sex, but is rather timid in showing any inclination toward them.

Basket Ball (2-3), Track, Football (3).

Ada Madeline Houghton

"I know it is a sin, for me to sit and grin"

Ada is dark-haired, very attractive, and gay. She was very popular, and had a host of friends of both sexes. You never saw Ada with a frown on her face. Ada was undoubtedly one of the outstanding girl athletes in the school. She is fond of all sports, and starred especially in hockey, basket ball, volley ball, and track.

Track (2-3), Basket Ball, Hockey, Volley Ball (2-3-4).

Robert Hayes Houghton

"Men of quality are above wit"

Do not allow yourself to be deluded by thinking that Robert isn't a busy boy. He is planning to go to Worcester Tech. and is getting the marks to enter yet without forgetting other activities. Outside of school, when he wasn't working in the stock-room of the Fitchburg Gas and Electric Company, he was either skating, swimming, or trading stamps, all according to the season.

Ring Committee (3), French Club (4).

Everett Frederick Innerasky

"His talents are of a more silent class"

Everett is quiet and not boastful, but he was one of the pillars of our art department. His taste and skill may be seen in some numbers of our Red and Gray and even in the Class Book. His greatest hobby is drawing, of course, but skating and tennis are also enjoyed by this boy artist.

Squad B Football, Palette Club, Councillor, Assistant Manager Baseball (3), Manager of Baseball, Red and Gray Board (4).

Josephine Jenny Jarski

"A merry heart goes all the day"

You can't miss Josie in a crowd because of her red, red hair! Whenever Cline's orchestra plays at a Shirley dance, Josie is sure to be there. She worked for Mr. Howard every other week, but regardless of part-time dignity, we could hear her hearty laugh resound from one end of the corridor to the other. She was an enthusiastic rooter at the football games. In addition to her fondness for dancing, she enjoys playing checkers with Shirley Hatch.

Glee Club (3).

Armas Donald Jarvela

"Young fellows will be young fellows!"

Armas's influence at the Sentinel gave many an athlete a good writeup. The basket ball and baseball teams seemed to get the best advertising. He spent more time with his gang than with his studies. Armas's motto is "Never trouble trouble."

Basket Ball (2-3-4), Baseball (3-4).

Arthur Jalmari Jarvi

"Small in body, big in mind"

Arthur besides being one of the smartest in our class is one of the smallest. He was a delight to the teachers. Art is also a great baseball player and covered second base for our team with great skill.

Baseball (3).

Joseph Jurga

"A generous friendship no cold medium knows"

Joe was a hard worker and a fine sport in his high school work. His record showed an unbroken string of honor marks which really must be envied. Although Joe did not take part in High School basket ball, we hear he played some brilliant games in Shirley Center. To hunt and fish in some remote spot is a diverting occupation for Joe.

Junior-Senior Relay (3).

Helen Hagburg Johnson

"They are never alone that are accompanied with noble thoughts"

Artistic Helen has won a warm place in the hearts of her classmates. She has a true sense of the artistic side of life, and is also endowed with much practical philosophy. Her name has often been seen on the honor roll. Dancing holds great allurements for Helen and after watching a few dances, we need not ask why.

Glee Club (2), Dramatic Club (2-3), Palette Club, Class Book Committee (4).

Paul Clifford Johnson

"Sentimentally I am disposed to harmony
But organically I am incapable of a tune"

One does not have to be a musician to be a music lover. Paul Johnson plays no instrument other than the radio, but his love for music can't be beaten. As a rule Paul spent his afternoons clerking in an A&P Store, studying, and tuning in.

Freda Olga Kandianis

"Good order is the foundation of all good things"

Freda is one of our future young business women. She was a part-time pupil and worked in the library. She is athletic and went out for all sports. She and Mary are inseparable. May it always remain so.

Hockey (2-3).

Jalo Aatos Kauppinen

"Him for the studious shade, kind nature formed"

Jalo doesn't say much unless he is called upon, but don't get the mistaken expression that he doesn't know it. In fact, what he doesn't know about physics and chemistry can't be very important. Although he doesn't care so much for certain other subjects, he gets good marks. He works at his father's jewelry store on Main Street. Piano playing is his favorite sport, indoor or outdoor.

Charles Henry Kendall

"Studies serve for delight, for ornament, and for ability"

Charley is well known to the students—especially the English students, for he worked afternoons as an attendant at the public library. He also blew the trombone in the band, and seemed to enjoy it. Charles is an aviation bug and plans to study aviation at the Worcester trade school.

Band (2-3-4).

Edith Evelyn Keyes

"Free from cares, serene, and gay!"

Edith was unpretending in school and active in outside life. She loves dancing, dotes on swimming and frightens us timid souls with her horseback riding. Her aim in life is to become a teacher and bestow the benefits she has received upon the next suffering generation. A delightfully unaffected girl, and not too much addicted to studying.

Band, Orchestra, Glee Club, French Club (4).

Frances Anna Kincaid

"Good humor and friendliness are the health of the soul"

Sincerity, loyalty, and helpfulness are only a few of Frannie's attributes. Four years her smile and pleasing manner have blossomed in our hearts and have caused us to respond and feel cheery, too. Although somewhat reserved, Frannie has been a loyal rooter for the teams and has proved a real friend to many of us.

Glee Club, Dramatic Club.

Mary Frances Kinsey

"A happy soul am I—and why not?"

Mary accomplished the principal task of her High School career—amusing her friends! Have you ever heard her giggling laugh or "Oh yeah? They're good!" When Kinsey's Rolls Royce is headed for the football games, our warning is, "Watch Out!" Working as pitcher of a baseball team and making all the home runs used to be Mary's favorite outside sport, but now it's attending the talkies.

Allie Ingrid Kokkinen

"Of all the girls that are so smart,
There's none like pretty Allie"

Allie may not be as loquacious as most of the girls are, but that is because her mind is otherwise occupied. Allie types for Mr. Goodfellow afternoons and for Mr. Amiott mornings every alternate week. We hear Allie is very fond of riding in a new roadster.

Hockey (2-3), Marshal (3-4).

Sylvia Maria Koski

"What has a woman to do with politics I say?"

Sylvia is a pretty little girl with an infectious giggle and a broad sense of humor. She does say the funniest things! Dancing and swimming are her hobbies. She certainly lives up to her motto "Never worry." Sylvia worked after school taking care of a little child. She has no definite plans for the future, but she may enter Boston Domestic School.

Glee Club, Hockey (2).

Esther Kaino Koutonen

"I preach forever; but I preach in vain"

Esther, a blonde and a future nurse, has many admirers of both sexes. Her attractive appearance and pleasing manner won her many friends during her high school career. She is interested in all outdoor sports, and is noted for her skill as a skater and swimmer.

Volley Ball (2), Dramatic Club (4).

Arne Charles Lahtinen

"Quiet he is, but ah! a twinkle in his eye!"

Dinky is one of Westminster's native sons. With a keen sense of humor and originality, he has decided opinions about the opposite sex. His ambitions lie along technical lines. Although Dinky has been known to neglect intellectual opportunities, Fitchburg class rooms seem to have had a most inspiring effect.

Frederick Lakso

"He that has knowledge spares his words"

We did not hear much from Fred either in school or outside, but this was because he is modest and does not want his boundless knowledge made public. His hobby is building radios. When he is not skating or swimming, he is either tuning in or making another radio.

Arlene Mae LaPratt

"She to her friends does companionship present"

Arlene is a quiet, demure young lady, who certainly looks younger than her years. She's a girl who can wear her hair straight and still look well. Arlene did not take part in the social affairs at school. She tells us her hobbies are skating and basket ball.

Elsa Laila Lassila

"To be merry best becomes me"

Elsa is a real business woman. Her energy in the Junior year and especially the Senior year helped to make our fine record for collecting class dues. Elsa is not only a smart executive, but also one of our best athletes.

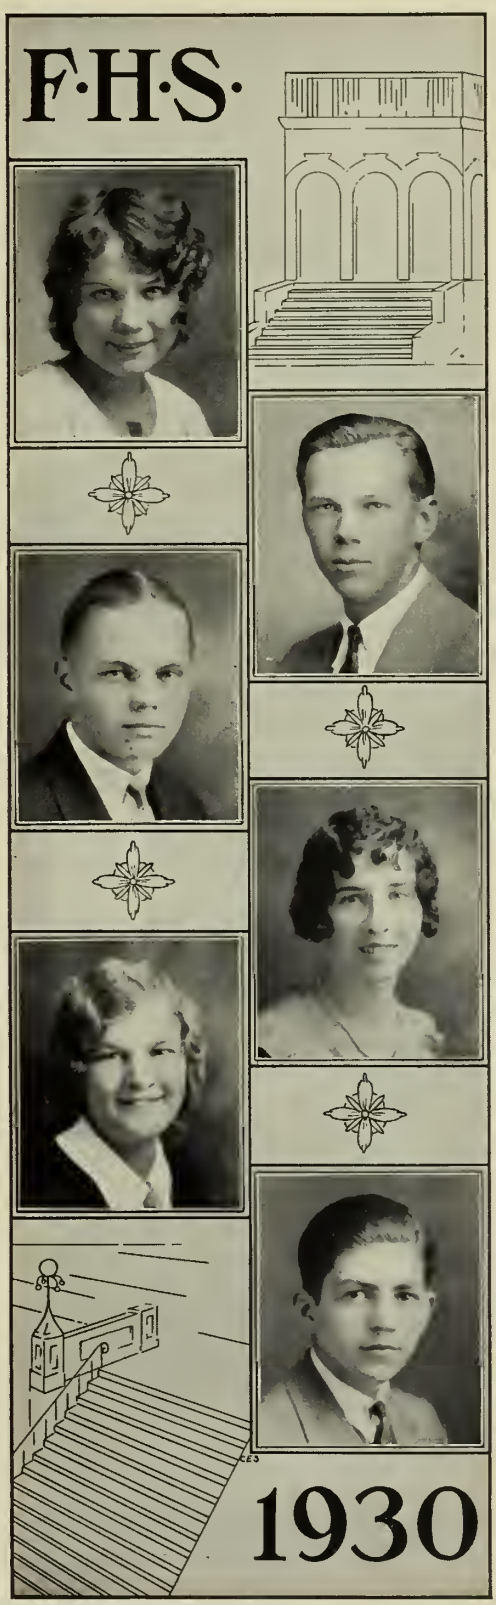

Volley Ball, Track (2), Basket Ball (2-3), Collected Class Dues (3-4), Marshal, Class Book Committee (4).

Edgar Roland Lavoie

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart"

Edgar lent a helping hand to numbers of cherubs in French and was responsible for much of the success of the French Club. Many adventures of "Freckles" are attributed to Edgar's working afternoons on the Sentinel. Although Edgar has been rather quiet, his sincerity has won him a large number of friends.

Debating Club (2), French Club (2-3-4), Glee Club, Reporter for Red and Gray (4).

Emilia Leona LeBlanc

"Ornament of a meek and quiet spirit"

This small, dark, little girl is greatly interested in children and hiking. Although she did not take part in many activities, she was a loyal supporter of our school. She worked very hard to keep honor marks throughout her school years.

Marie Elizabeth LeDoux

"She must be known to be appreciated"

Which saying is essentially true of Marie—we find her loth to talk of herself. Especially in school did she keep her own counsel, but then she was not without friends so it must have been that rare quality called reserve. Among other things, Marie is particularly fond of volley ball. Marie tells us that her goal is office work.

Dramatic Club, French Club, Glee Club, Pickles (3).

Alice Catherine L'Ecuyer

"Be virtuous and you'll be happy!"

Swimming and dancing are Alice's hobbies. She is greatly interested in French, which she studied four years and in which she received a prize her Sophomore year. She intends to continue the study of this language. On Saturdays, Alice worked in Goodnow Pearson's.

French Club, Dramatic Club (4).

Herman Alexander L'Ecuyer

"You hear that boy laughing? You think he's all fun
But the angels laugh, too, at the good he's done."

Herman is distinguished mainly by his constant reference to the "Her Man" in his name. He tells us that his outside work is studying and his one hobby getting specimens for biology! But this is just Herman's way of making a joke out of anything and everything that comes along. Usually "Le Queer," as he is sometimes fondly termed, was surrounded by a grinning group of boys or girls whom he habitually amused with his varied repertoire.

French Club, Dramatic Club, Prize Speaking Contest, Senior Class Play (4).

Frank Joseph Leger

"I hope to fly and touch the sky"

Frankie, dark hair, dark eyes, height—five feet six. Noted for his fantastic manœuvers on our dance floor. How he can dance is nobody's business! Frankie hopes to take Lindy's place after graduation, as he is planning to attend an aviation school. See you in the clouds, Frankie.

Basket Ball Squad B, Baseball Squad B, Football Squad B (2-3), Football Squad A (4).

Helvi Regina Lehikoinen

"Knowledge is power"

There may be more obliging girls than Helvi, but we have yet to find them. Generous, unassuming, and thoughtful, she was always ready to give folks a lift—be it help with sequence of tenses or a French translation. We may think of Helvi, in future years, as a nurse making the sufferings of others easier to bear.

Arthur Lauri Lepisto

"He who works hard is usually happy"

Art wasn't heard from a great deal in school. During hunting and fishing seasons you could find him in the nearby woods banging away with his shotgun. Although Art spent his afternoons in the woods, he also found time for his lessons and was one of our best students.

Gertrude Hattie Leupold

"Good sense, which only is the gift of Heaven"

Gert must have been a busy girl from all reports. She worked at the Normal School every other week and attended their socials as loyally as she did ours. She also worked at Brockelman's. Although she believes in a good time, she also believes in doing her lessons. Noted for her pleasant disposition.

Councillor (2), Marshal (3-4).

Katherine Mary Lewis

"Tall, serene, as fair a girl as e'er was seen"

Katherine's blue eyes, quick, warm smile, and low voice with its suspicion of a drawl, make her a particularly pleasing person to meet. From her account of good times we gather that Katherine enjoys dancing. And we wonder whether Holy Cross has anything to do with her choice of a Worcester Hospital for training. By the way, Katherine, we think you'll make a peach of a nurse.

John Philippe Loiselle

"Never let your studies interfere with your regular High School Course"

John, a merry and happy-go-lucky fellow, cheered many of his classmates in time of trouble. He spent his spare time as a clerk in the Rome Clothing Co. store, but this did not prevent his frequent attendance at various theatres. He knows every actor and actress in Hollywood.

Glee Club (2), French Club (2-3), Football Squad B, Interclass Baseball (3).

Richard Lowell

"There is no wisdom like frankness"

Undoubtedly Dick is an explanation in part of the prosperity of the Eastman Kodak Co., judging by the extensive array of cameras and photographic apparatus which he already owns. Experimenting with these, and touring the town in his Ford apparently absorbed his whole interest outside of school. Of an inquisitive nature, he has discovered many delightful points even about French verbs. Whatever the future holds, the Lowell grin will aid immensely in bringing success.

Sylvia Adele Luokkala

"Good humor is the health of the soul"

Did you ever see Sylvia with a frown? Of course not, and you probably never will. To the uninitiated, Sylvia might appear quiet, but that imp of mischief in her eyes belies her calm exterior. Sylvia is another enthusiastic sports-lover.

Winona Irene Mackay

"Good humor and understanding play in the fair proportions of her face"

What a jolly good sport Winona is! She excels in winter sports, especially skating. A few years ago, while skating, she won a medal for rescuing a boy who fell through the ice. She is modest and shy with a cheerful word for everyone. She expects to go to New York to train for a nurse.

Palette Club (4).

Duncan Paul MacLean

"Good nature and good sense are usually companions"

Good nature, good sense, and Duncan are three close companions. He was quiet and conservative as we saw him in class. His personality is so magnetic, that he scarcely has to speak a word to make a new friend. His accomplishments were as a rule above the average of the school, despite seeming to take things in a matter-of-fact way.

Debating Club, Dramatic Club (3), Senior Class Play, Marshal, Class Book Committee (4).

Kaarlo Armas Makela

"His limbs are cut in manly mold,
For hardy sports and contest bold"

Karl was the strong boy of our class who craved wrestling and gymnastics. Drop in at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium any Tuesday night and you can see Karl training for a coming match with Gus Sonnenberg.

Sylvia Marie Maki

"She's all my fancy paints her"

One can always depend upon a smile from Sylvia. She helped Mr. Chalmers at the office every alternate week, and worked at Kresge's on Saturdays. Sylvia is very fond of skating and was frequently seen at Coggshall Pond. She is also a very good dancer.

Track (2), Marshal (3-4), Senior Class Party, Class Book Committee, Dramatic Club (4).

Toivo Oliver Maki

"These strong, silent men"

Toivo was one of the quietest of our boys. His recitations in class were pretty steady though, and even if at a loss he managed to retain his dignity—no stuttering or stammering for Toi. We suggest that Toivo try for a position where unswerving composure is required. He'd qualify!

Mary Evinthia Mangalias

"I have rather studied books than men"

Mary has quiet ways and spent a good deal of her time studying. She was a very efficient part-time student. She was one of the gang frequently seen in the lunch room between recesses. If you know Mary, you're sure to like her. Noted for her black hair.

Hockey (2-3).

Chester Frank Marchant

"Words of truth and soberness"

Chet is our quiet but energetic baseball captain. We didn't hear much from him in the classrooms, but he was a leader on the diamond. Besides being captain of the baseball team, he also played football until an injury forced him to the sidelines.

Baseball (2-3-4), Football Squad B (2), Football Squad A (3), Class Color Committee (3).

Jean Pauline Marien

"Pleasure and action make the hours seem short"

Jean is one of the musical girls of the Senior class. Her performances on both piano and violin are of no small merit. She has an ambition for a musical career and if persistence counts for anything, we shall one day hear from her in the higher realms of the musical world.

Glee Club (3-4), French Club, Dramatic Club, Senior Musicale (4).

Veikko John Marshall

"Almost to all things could he turn his hand"

Veikko was one of the busiest students in our class. He was a member of the Dramatic and French clubs and also on the Class Book Committee. He took part in the Junior Class play last year and was also assistant manager of track. Veikko plans to enter Worcester Tech. after his graduation and continue his activities there.

Baseball (2-3), Junior Class Play (3), French Club, Dramatic Club (3-4), Senior Class Play, Track Manager, Senior Class Prophecy chairman (4).

Clover Louise Matatall

"Her conversation had no bitterness, nor her company any tediousness"

Clover has a rather demure manner and a vigorous right arm. She is in the Girl Scouts and also the Girl Scout Drum and Bugle Corps where she has the privilege of playing the bass drum. This is a rise for Clover as last year she merely carried the drum.

Glee Club, Dramatic Club (4).

Toini Katherine Matson

"An agreeable companion on a journey is as good as a carriage"

Toini likes children very much for she always manages to get hold of some afternoons and evenings. Toini is one of our happy-go-lucky girls, who always wears a smile.

Hockey (2-3), Track (3).

William Nicholas Matson

"Slumber is more sweet to me than toil"

William has a highly developed sense of humor. His idea of a humorous situation centers in a practical joke. But his good nature has made him many friends, and, we suspect, has sometimes saved him from deserved reprimands. He is apt to neglect his intellectual opportunities, but on the relay team he knows how to show speed.

Relay Team, Football Squad B (3).

Horace Charles Maxson

"Manners make the man"

Horace has a truly metropolitan air, probably impressed upon him by the personages of the cinema with whom his work acquaints him. His chivalrous, gallant, and courteous manner is never shown to better advantage than when he conducts a patron to a seat in Shea's theatre. He is also musically inclined, judging from his extended membership in the Glee Club.

Junior-Senior Relay (3), Operetta, Glee Club, Glee Club Dance (4).

Donald Williamson Mayberry

"A tall serious man in outward seeming,
But in his heart a likeable, jolly boy"

When his day's work is over at The Sweater Shop, Don, the business man, becomes Don, the artist, who excels at the 'cello and likes pastel drawing and reading. Don takes his studies seriously. He was a member of the orchestra and class relay team.

Orchestra (2-3-4), Junior-Senior Relay (3), Senior Class Play, Vice-Pres. Boys' Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Boys' Debating Club (4).

Francis Leo McAuliff

"I am a man more sinned against than sinning"

Mac's favorite poem is: "I have a Rendezvous with Miss Haskins." He has surely done his share to sustain the popularity of 26. At Mann's Market, Mac has a reputation as a clerk without an equal. Because of his quiet, unassuming, innocent personality he is the most popular of clerks in that establishment. Mac rises to say, "Homework is a stumbling block in the path of A's."

Debating Club (2), Assistant Manager of Football (3).

John Joseph McCormack

John was usually seen hustling and bustling in almost any part of the school—sometimes to class, or what not. He has probably acquired this habit by working in a grocery store, where it is only natural for a clerk to hurry. His aim is to enter college—where, he knows not.

Glee Club, Dramatic Club (3).

Nora Agnes McCormack

"Smiling Irish Eyes" remind us of Nora, for even when she is serious, one catches a glimpse of a naughty little twinkle. She says she likes to dance, and we may well believe it after seeing her trip the light fantastic. She plans some day to don the little white cap of a nurse. Her unfailing good-nature and optimism will be immeasurably helpful to her patients.

Glee Club, Operetta (3).

Agnes Mildred McElroy

"Argument for a week, laughter for a month, and a good jest forever"

Mac takes great delight in driving up Main Street in her "Caw" and defying the officers of the law. Her unceasing flow of discourse has been the cause of more than one verbal controversy; and her progress in this direction has caused many to despair. As a rule, Aggie has no use for the finer sex, but of course there are exceptions to every rule. As our class scribe in our Junior year, she was always doing her utmost for our best interests.

Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Debating Club (2-3-4), Class Secretary, Councillor (3), Marshal (3-4).

Maude May McGee

"Continual cheerfulness is a sign of wisdom"

Maude always greets you with a friendly smile, and a merry twinkle in her eye. Being a Girl Scout, she believes in helping others cheerfully. Her chief hobby is reading, but we also hear that she is quite fond of riding in Lucile's car. Maude is planning to become a school teacher.

French Club, Debating Club, Class Book Committee (4).

Leo Arnold McGuirk

"A smile is worth forty frowns"

Leo, our actor, debater, and gentleman, has won the hearts of all who know him. Leo is one of the reasons why future actors tremble for their laurels. His dramatic ability has been proved again and again during his High School career. Because of his ability as a cheer-leader, football rallies will never be the same when he has left. May your affability and pep win you success and esteem in life as it has at Fitchburg, and the string of broken hearts left behind will be eased by their pride in you.

Band (2-3-4), Debating Club (2-3), Junior-Senior Reception, Ring Committee, Councillor (3), Dramatic Club, Dramatic Club Pin Committee, Marshal, Cheerleader, Open Meeting (3-4), Class Play (4).

Harry Gordon McInnes

"Will was his guide"

Harry showed industry by his honor record. Besides receiving high marks he showed himself a very good business man by his work during his spare time at Donahue's Shoe store. Harry has been among the quieter members of our class and has not taken part in any activities.

Robert Holmes McKenna

"A man of gladness seldom falls into madness"

Bob is a lad who will not have anyone in his company feeling unhappy. He banishes unhappiness by telling jokes that are always new, and which invariably give his audience a good laugh. Afternoons his time was divided between work and play. He spent a part of his time at the Bendix-Cowdrey Brake Tester Corporation, and the other part in playing at any outdoor sport that a person can think of.

Junior-Senior Reception (3), Prophecy Committee for Red and Gray (4).

Arthur Henry McKenney

"In all thy humours, whether grave or mellow
Thou art such a pleasant fellow"

Red was a quiet lad around school but, nevertheless, he was well liked, especially by a certain fair member of the opposite sex. Red was a true supporter of High School athletics, and a great lover of tennis. Bowling is another favorite pastime of his; reports are that he is quite a star at this indoor sport. He left us in the middle of our Senior year.

Marjorie Irene McManus

"The joy of youth her eyes displayed"

Mac is the athlete of the class. Hockey, basket ball, volley ball, and track—each has its turn with Marjorie. That happy, good-natured way of hers induces others to feel merry too.

Basket Ball (2-3-4), Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Hockey, Track, Volley Ball (2-3).

Edmund Ambrose McNally

"I'm farther off from heaven than when I was a boy"

The other day we saw a flock of girls around something and on investigation, we discovered it was Eddie McNally, a grid warrior from West Street. We did not see much of Eddie until his Senior year at which time he blossomed out and showed he could make good.

Football, Baseball.

Priscilla Mary Moeckel

"Ask me no questions and I'll tell you no lies"

Meet our flower girl! It is a pleasure to see Prissie's cheery smile as she walks up and down the corridors. She is very fond of sports and dancing.

Dramatic Club (2-3), Operetta (3).

Michael George Mooradian

"There is no trusting to appearances"

Michael is a solemn-looking chap, but some imp must be living inside of him, for it is continually peeking through Michael's eyes. His hobby, of all things, is civics. He hasn't any definite plans for the future, but his hobby may be his guide as it has already piloted him into the Debating Club. An easy-going, likeable fellow.

Debating Club (2-3), Dramatic Club (3).

Thomas Francis Moran

But pardon me, I am too sudden bold, to teach a teacher ill becometh me"

Tom didn't work too much on his studies, but he got fairly good grades. He also found time to enjoy himself either by watching football games or tinkering with machinery. Tom plans to go to college after graduation.

Ruth Elise Morgner

"The glass of fashion and the mold of form"

Our chief youthful exemplar of la vie moderne, but feminine withal to the last degree. A personality as gay and changing as the many costumes she wears with unconscious grace; with a bubbling enthusiasm which communicates itself to others and keeps her younger than her years. Beneath all this is a solid ground of ability in dramatics and of proficiency in her studies.

Red and Gray (2-3), Open Meeting, Dramatic Club (2-4), Ring Committee (3), Marshal, Senior Class Play (4).

Regina Marie Morin

"Smooth words make smooth ways"

Regina may be small, but she is correspondingly quick and active. She plans to engage in office work after graduation. She has a smile and a greeting for all.

Beatrice Anna Morse

"We're born to be happy, all of us"

Bea is one of our charming young seniors, who is not only good looking but ambitious. Outside of school hours she took care of children, and worked as a clerk on Saturdays. She is a good sportsman, and played well on the Senior Girls' Basket Ball team. Bea also loaned the charm of her voice to the Glee Club.

Glee Club, Pickles, French Club (3), Debating Club, Basket Ball, Dramatic Club (4).

Roland Franklin Mudgett

"You can't expect to be both grand and comfortable"

Roland takes life in a free and easy manner. No one can accuse him of getting excited, even at a test in physics. In fact, the only things that can excite him are large fish, airplane rides, and detective stories. Roland drives a Ford coupe, better or worse for long usage, and you could hardly give him any other car.

Junior-Senior Relay.

Elna Linnea Muhonen

"Her dark eyes—how eloquent"

Elna has big brown eyes. She is a star basket ball player, and when she shoots, she is generally sure of a basket. At one time Elna was a good soda juggler, and worked at a soda fountain on Mechanic street. Elna timed the distance between her home and school so she got in just as the last bell rang.

Dramatic Club (2), Track (2-3), Glee Club, Volley Ball, Basket Ball (2-3-4).

Doris Louise Muir

"Blushing is the color of virtue"

Doris was a member of the commercial division. She is a real supporter of the West Fitchburg baseball team and may be seen cheering at any of their games. She is a great movie fan and is also interested in roller skating. She has participated in many of our school sports.

Hockey (2), Debating Club (4).

Albert Nelson

"Thought is deeper than all speech"

Al rattled down to school each morning in his little Ford. He is a serious, quiet chap, and very much interested in tinkering with all kinds of machines. Mechanical drawing, flying, and boxing also appeal to him.

Helen Niemi

"I have an inspiration—it shall be my life"

Although Helen was always ready for play, she thought of her lessons sometimes. She was seen at all school activities, and was especially interested in football this season. Helen hopes to go to Massachusetts School of Art. Noted for her ever ready smile.

Track (2-3), Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Debating Club, Palette Club, Usher at Basket Ball Games (4).

Wendell Allen Nye

"The deed proves the man"

Wendell comes from Westminster but has a city air which we believe he has acquired from four years of city High School with occasional visits to Worcester! Wendell is one of those people who make friends easily. Sometimes we saw him delivering bread, sugar, and like commodities and proving his abilities as a groceryman. A man of promise and ability.

Marshal (3-4).

Paavo Armas Oinonen

"Quips and quacks and wanton wiles
Nods and becks and wreathed smiles"

How disillusioned we have been when, in hearing the heavy tread of footsteps in the corridor and expecting to encounter a modern Goliath, we are confronted by that diminutive individual—Paavo. His size, however, was no drawback to his football progress. Although on rare occasions we saw him in a serious mood, he had a fondness for practical jokes that quite overbalanced the seriousness.

Basket Ball, Band, Track (2), Baseball, Football (2-3).

Albert John Oliva

"Talent is that which is a man's power"

Albert has proved his talents lie in the direction of doing things to help teachers. This year he has won the heart of Miss Haskins by being official door closer. In his Junior year, he was chosen to be a Marshal; and has been, we venture to say, a good one. Albert's athletic interests are at the sign of the three balls—football, basket ball, and baseball.

Marshal (3).

Laura Amy O'Neill

"With a smile on her lips, and a smile in her eyes"

Laura is an enthusiastic sportswoman in winter. Especially does she enjoy cutting figure eights, at Coggshall. She seems especially in classes to have the ability to see the funny side of life. Laura is one of our part-time students and we expect in the near future to see her make a place in the business world.

Orchestra (3).

Helvi Agnes Orava

"As merry as a cricket"

At the Junior reception last year Helvi proved quite an actress. We shall never forget her song, "Do, Do Something." Helvi makes it her duty to know all the popular dance hits. She is also a good basket ball player.

Glee Club (2), Track, Volley Ball, Basket Ball (2-3), Junior-Senior Reception, Red and Gray Dance Committee (3), Dramatic Club, Class Prophecy Committee, Marshal (4).

Charles Nelson Paskauskas

"Reasoning at every step he treads"

Nelson is a good student and is well liked by his associates. He is quite interested in radio and enjoys the wonderful programs of the air. We frequently saw him carving model ships and airplanes and upon inquiring, learned that he plans to attend the Massachusetts Nautical School. We hope that he may some day be an admiral.

Veikko William Pesonen

"Nowhere beats a heart so kindly"

Veikko is a thoughtful and modest young man, and a good student. He played a sweet trumpet in the band and especially liked to play modern compositions. After school, he worked at the Central Hardware store. Judging from the reports from several students, he is a very good clerk.

Glee Club (3), Band (2-3).

Catherine Agnes Pettifer

"Whilst I yet live, let me not live in vain"

Catherine came to us from Orange in our Junior year. We were surely glad to get her. Her sunny smile and mischievous eyes have entranced many of us, both girls and boys. She is especially adept at dancing and is also a skillful skater. She could be seen on any cold day skipping over the ice at St. Joseph's rink.

Volley Ball (2), Dramatic Club (4).

Stanley Vernon Petts

"The world belongs to the energetic"

Although not an athlete, Stanley was a staunch supporter of athletics. He also was one of the Sentinel's staff, and stamped the Shirley and Westminster papers among many others. He says that dancing is no fun, but we think if he tried it he would surely enjoy it.

Edith May Pickles

"Eyes too expressive to be blue, too lovely to be gray"

Edith has the best of dispositions, and a pleasant smile for all. During her spare time, she worked at Kresge's Store. She is fond of all sports especially hiking. Edith hopes to enter an office as a bookkeeper. We feel sure she will succeed in whatever she decides to do.

Dramatic Club (4).

Vaito Armas Pirttinen

"The ease of his heart every look conveyed"

Vite is one of the boys to whom gym and basket ball form one of the chief attractions of school. He played on a boys' team for the Finnish A. C., besides playing as much as he could at school. He worked at the Raivaaja Publishing Co., mailing out the daily paper. Vite was one of the boys who ran in the Junior-Senior Relay.

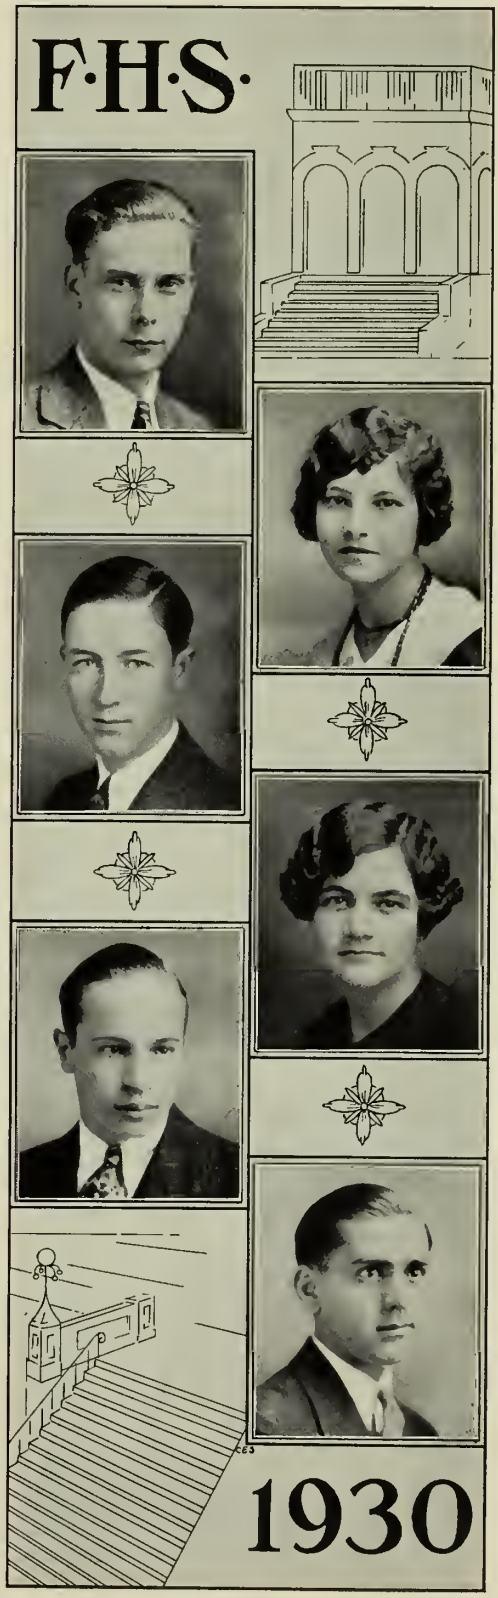

Junior-Senior Relay (3).

Joseph Alfred Posco

"A short saying often contains much wisdom"

Posco, although a quiet lamb of the herd, is the shining light of Mr. Harwood's history class. His words always draw sighs of relief from the other members of the class as Miss Haskins' assemblies are thereby not well attended. He is an example for us all when it comes to having lessons done on time. Life seems a serious matter to him, but still he has many friends who know another side of his character.

Basket Ball (2-3-4), Glee Club (2).

Dorothy Winifred Potter

"Roses are her cheeks"

A colleen with twinkling eyes and a face wreathed in smiles who patiently lugs home an armful of books daily. Dorothy has pronounced dramatic talents and has appeared in amateur productions outside of school. Tennis and hockey comprise her athletic interests. She intends to take up the study of dietetics at Simmons.

Tennis Tournament, Vice-President of Dramatic Club, Secretary of Debating Club, Secretary and Treasurer of Glee Club, Prize Speaking, Class Prophecy Committee, Dramatic, Glee, and Debating Clubs, Dance Committees, Class Play, Glee Club Concert, Glee Club Operetta, Marshal (4).

Mary Catherine Potter

Mary has not been a faithful attendant of High School social functions, but devoted her attention to the more serious side of High School life. She was usually seen pondering over her books, and as a result has been rewarded with good marks in her studies. Mary is of a calm, studious nature, and is usually smiling and cheerful.

Councillor (2), French Club (4).

Toini Irene Puro

"A fig for care, and a fig for woe!"

Toini personifies gaiety, liveliness, and sport. Swiftly moving, brightly smiling, she went in and out of school as a mountain brook skips among the pebbles. Free from the worries we others feel, she throws herself wholeheartedly into dancing, swimming, and skating activities which, with their breathless motion, satisfy her excitement-loving soul.

Track, Hockey (2).

Anthony Michael Quatrello

Lo and behold! What have we here? A promising boxer and contender for the heavyweight crown left by Gene Tunney. Tony not only boxes, but he is also a riot in his classes. With these various talents he is bound to succeed.

Madelyn Jane Quigley

"A maiden is a tender thing"

Ice-skating, horseback riding, swimming, hockey—there are not many girls who are more active in sports than Madelyn. Yet sports do not take up all her leisure, for she finds time for catering and taking care of children. Besides being a member of the Dramatic Club, she had a position in our orchestra.

Hockey (2), Orchestra (2-3-4), Dramatic Club (3-4), Debating Club (4).

Toini Rahkola

"Cheeks as soft as July peaches
Lips whose dewy scarlet teaches poppies paleness"

Toi is one of the most demure little ladies of the whole class, and also one of the most attractive. She adds to her charm by a natural flair for good taste in dress. Her attractive ensembles are a source of general envy. Toi brags about her distaste for studies, but is a good student, nevertheless. She likes all sports, especially basket ball and swimming. She is a very busy girl, and a very able one. Besides going out for every school project that she could, she helped outside. However, Toi's reply to any compliment is invariably a modest "Sez you."

Track, Glee Club, Pickles (3), Basket Ball (3-4).

Bertha Claire Rahmberg

"There is nothing more requisite in business than dispatch"

Bertha is one of those High School students who, after school is an efficient and industrious clerk at Kresge's. She is most obliging too. But Bertha does not always mean to be a clerk, but plans to go to some business school for further training.

Dramatic Club (3-4).

Edna Rajala

"She dances like an angel"

Windblown bobs for Edna. She's just the girl for them. Edna, being very fond of dancing, sees to it that she doesn't miss one. We sometimes wonder if Edna would go to all those dances if it wasn't for a certain little fellow in the orchestra.

Track (2), Hockey (2-4).

Walter Kauko Rautio

"I am monarch of all I survey"

Flash was one of our most active pupils in all social and athletic affairs and he expects to continue his activities at college. As staff photographer on the Red and Gray, he took great pleasure in keeping the faculty shivering on the front steps while he adjusted the focus of his camera. He made an enviable record for himself by his work and genuine interest in all he undertook.

Band, Councillor, Track, Basket Ball (2), Football, Red and Gray Board (2-3-4), Orchestra (3-4), Class Play, French Club, French Play, Dramatic Club, Class Book, Relay (4).

Clarence Grant Roper

"And panting time toiled after him in vain"

Clarence is another Westminster boy who has made good. An apt and industrious student, Roper is fitting himself for M. A. C. He should do well there and in after life, if his willingness to work and the conscientiousness he displayed in the class rooms of Fitchburg High continue.

Dramatic Club, Track Team (4).

Eunice Rosen

"My mind on its own center stands unmoved,
And stable as the fabric of the world"

Eunice is quiet and thoughtful by nature; independent and original in her ideas. She gets a healthy enjoyment from sports, of which swimming and tennis are her special favorites. Her time in school besides earnest preparation for Simmons College, was taken up by various activities, especially in the literary field.

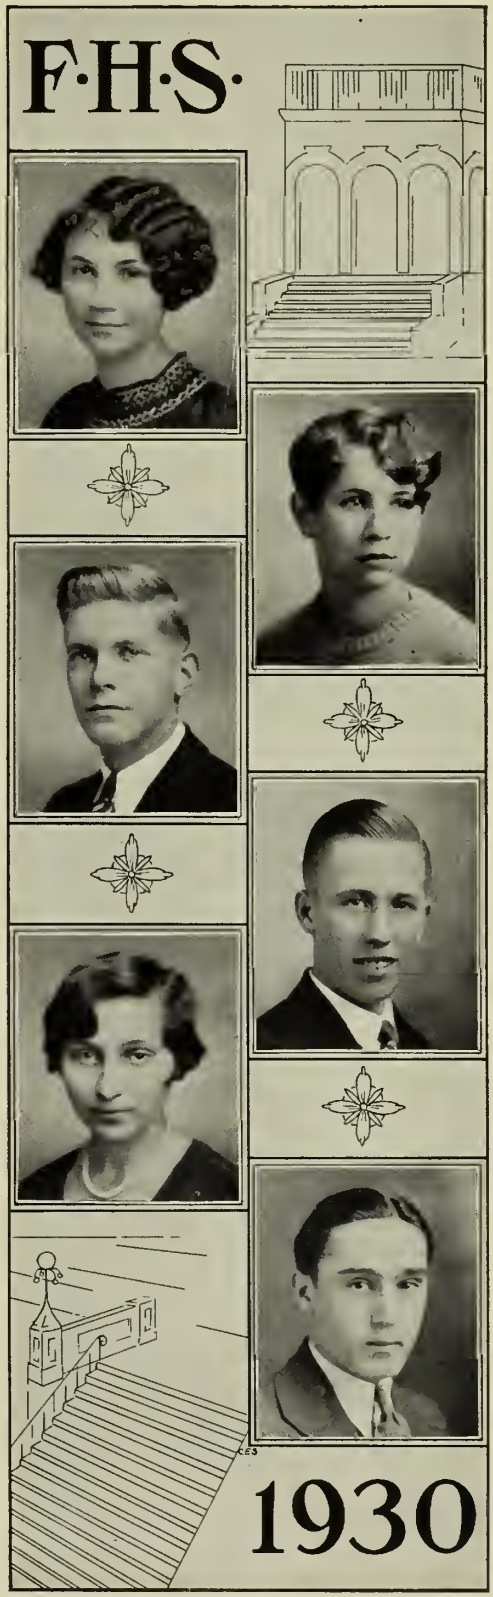

Debating Club (2-3), Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Motto Committee, Volley Ball Team (3), French Club (3-4), Class Book Committee, Senior Musicale, Glee Club, Glee Club Concert, Senior Class Play, Basket Ball Team, Operetta (4).

Manfredo Renald Rossi

"Full of strange oaths"

Manfredo is one of the bright students of our class. He was always telling stories to whoever would listen to him. Besides being the class jester, he also holds a responsible position as an assistant manager in one of our local theatres.

Class Prophecy Committee (4).

Paavo Edward Rostedt

"The mold of this man is in his clothes"

Bevo is our quiet track captain who is expected to reach high altitudes this coming season. Bevo was also a good little halfback on our football team. His hard tackles shook many an opponent's vertebrae.

Track (2-3-4), Football (2-3-4).

Theresa Maria Roy

"Pluck up thy spirits; look cheerfully on me"

Cheerful, and evidently believing in the phrase "Keep smiling," Theresa goes about whatever is to be done. She is a little person—but so was Napoleon. Her talents as an usher are in no wise lacking. In the orchestra we heard the music of her violin. Who can tell what that instrument may have to do with her future?

Glee Club, French Club, Dramatic Club, Orchestra (3).

Yvonne Louise Roy

"As frank as rain or cherry blossoms"

Yvonne isn't one of the so-called prominent members of the class. She doesn't go around tooting her own horn and rushing into every activity, but when it comes right down to loyalty to her school and to lending a hand to the cause, Yvonne is right there. She makes friends rather readily and keeps them. We guess that she would infinitely prefer to go swimming than to dig away at her studies!

French Club (4).

Edwin Mitchel Ruuska

"A brave man struggling in the storm of fate"

Eddie is one of our air-minded classmates who is planning to take up aeronautics in the near future. We didn't hear enough from this tall, quiet classmate of ours. For all we know, we may have another Lindy in our midst.

Mary Charlotte Ryan

"When Irish eyes are smiling"

Blue eyes, black waving hair, and what have you? Charlotte always has a good time whether it be in Fitchburg or Leominster! As she will tell you her favorite hobbies are reading and watching football games—particularly the one staged Thanksgiving Day! Her ambition is to be a stenographer—won't she make a cute one?

Track (3), Dramatic Club (3-4), Debating Club (4).

Hazel Louise Ryder

"Begone, dull Care! I prithee begone from me!"

Hazel is another smiling girl. Her motto to which she certainly lives up is "Laugh, and the world laughs with you." Although Hazel was very conscientious about her studies, she was nevertheless just full of mischief. Hazel is a great sports-lover, and never misses a basket ball or football game

French Club, Dramatic Club, Debating Club (3).

Tauno Salminen

"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit"

Fish is our well-known basket ball captain. He excels, too, in football and baseball. He also played a political role as a member of our student council representing room 22. As yet Fish has not cast an eye at the fairer sex. But who knows?

Junior-Senior Relay, Football, Basket Ball, Baseball (2-3-4), Councillor, Class Book Committee (4).

Mary Katherine Scanlon

"Good humor teaches charm to last"

Mary was very fond of all High School sports and likewise attended all the games at Crocker Field. Mary kept our typewriting class running smoothly by singing to us when the teacher was out.

Dramatic Club (2-3-4).

Elsa Anna Schaff

"Few hearts like hers with virtue warmed,
Few hands so many tasks performed"

Elsa's magnetism lies in her individual personality, her willingness to do, and her friendliness. Elsa couldn't possibly be idle anywhere and she is someone's idol everywhere. The burden of so many outside activities and of numerous responsibilities has failed to daunt her determination and courage. If life is good to the friendly and kind, then, Elsa, untold happiness will be yours.

Basket Ball, Belle of Barcelona (2), Track, Hockey, (2-3), Pickles, Junior-Senior Reception (3), Glee Club, Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Marshal, Palette Club, Girls' Debating Club, Class Dues (3-4), Class Play, Class Book Committee (4).

Angelo Seretto, Jr.

"Look you, I am the most concerned in my own interests"

Seretto is the boy you can see every day riding up and down Main street in his Chevrolet. He is a big business man, it seems, as he takes a great hand in his Dad's business. He is another of the members of the class who think "Silence is golden." Try being more articulate, Angelo, and maybe you can coin silver.

Joseph Shane

"Business is business"

Here we have none other than Joseph Shane himself in person, Bill Tilden's only rival on the tennis court. Gussie is planning to attend Clark University to continue his studies in Latin.

Elizabeth Shaw

"Studious she sat, with all her books around"

One of the quietest of our girls is Elizabeth—not shy, but oh, so reserved! Not idling away her time talking, she can and does devote much of it to reading. Then, too, this habit of silence saves wind and Elizabeth does like track. Elizabeth is another of our nurses-to-be.

Dramatic Club (4).

Margaret Dorothy Shea

"Best of comfort, and ever welcome to us—welcome lady"

Margaret has won many friends by her pleasing ways. She is said to be a good example of a model student. Margaret is especially interested in drawing and oil painting. She expects to go to Normal School.

Palette Club (3-4), Marshal (3-4), Dramatic Club (4).

Margaret Ellen Shea

"Bashfuness is an ornament to youth"

Margaret, a quiet member of the class, has not participated in many school activities. We hear, however, that she is an ardent skiing fan. Her spare time was spent as cashier in the Goodnow-Pearson Co. store, where she has made many friends. Her attractive smile pleases many of the other sex.

Glee Club (3).

Leona Elizabeth Sherman

"Prosperity to the man that ventures to please her"

It is a pleasure to see Leona at any time. On a rainy day she can be seen wearing her chic yellow slicker with its pleasing decorations, the envy of the school. Leona plans to work a year before entering Bryant & Stratton's

Dramatic Club (4).

Elvie Catherine Siipola

"She was good as she was fair
To know her was to love her"

In our school, the name Siipola is synonymous with both activity and responsibility. Elvie's readiness to help has put her on intimate terms with all the teachers and the pupils. Elvie likes to draw and to act, and sometimes gives dramatic representations in the assembly hall. A steady, intelligent girl, with a good sense of humor and a keen enjoyment of life.

Red and Gray Dance Committee, Dramatic Club, Red and Gray (2-3-4), Junior Class Party, Councillor (3), Marshal, Palette Club (3-4), Senior Class Play, Class Book Committee (4).

George Elliott Smith

"Our hopes, like tow'ring falcons, aim
At objects in an airy height"

George is one of those small fellows, being only six feet high. Despite his size he doesn't cause much disturbance in 26. He's figuring now whether or not to take a course in aviation, and keep his head quite literally in the clouds. George's specialties are skating, basket ball, and ushering at Shea's.

Basket Ball, Baseball (2), Track (3).

Paul Alexander Smith

"Act well your part, there all the honor lies"

Paul the heartbreaker made his debut as a dancer his Junior year. He also showed talent as a grid warrior. Paul has a Scotch personality and will without doubt succeed.

Class Party, Junior-Senior Relay (3), Debating Club, Football, Dramatic Club (3-4), Open Meeting, Senior Class Play, Marshal (4).

Paul Francis Smith

"His best companions, his books"

Paul comes from Westminster, where we understand, he is very active in clubs and sports. He is a quiet, studious boy and we know he will be successful in whatever he undertakes. Many of us have been objects of his caustic wit, and seldom have we been able to beat him in repartee. Paul's optimism and cheerfulness will go a long way toward making his future life a success.

Ruth Florence Smith

"When you have nothing to say, say nothing"

Ruth was rather quiet around school, and paid strict attention to her studies. But don't be misled by her sober expression, because really, she's just full of fun. Ruth says her hobby is driving a car.

Raymond Joseph St. Cyr

"He never engaged in a bad cause and never fled from a good one"

Ray proved that he was the flash of our track team by continuously streaking down the course in front of his rivals. Track is his favorite sport, but he has three others: Football, baseball, and dancing. Ray was the circulation manager of our school magazine. He was very popular in the only club he belonged to—the French Club, especially with the girls who composed it.

Assistant Manager of Red and Gray (2-3), French Club (2-3-4), Junior-Senior Relay (3), Track (3-4), Business Manager of Red and Gray (4).

Olive Antoinette St. Germain

"Little tube of mighty power, charmer of an idle hour"

This tall, dark, slim girl with the charming smile and pretty name of Olive is certainly a pleasant person to meet. She is a good student. She worked at S. S. Kresge & Co. on Saturdays, selling hot dogs. Olive has no definite plans for the future.

Elizabeth Pierce Stearns

"Sweet is thy virtue as thyself art sweet"

Charming manners, happy chatter, and fine disposition are Betty's merits. She liked school, but we are of the impression that she preferred playing golf and tennis or perhaps dancing. The parties and meetings of the Rainbow Society were certainly enlivened by Betty's presence. Sincerity is harbored in her gray eyes.

Track (2), Basket Ball (2-4), Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Junior-Senior Reception (3), French Club (3-4), Glee Club Concert (4).

Frank Joseph Steeves

"Be Mercury, set feathers to thy heels, and fly like thought"

Frank was one of the fastest runners in the school. His fine running last season gave Fitchburg rooters many a thrill. We hope he can keep up his good work on the cinders this coming spring. Frank was a member of our Junior Relay team and also of the basket ball team last season.

Gym Team (2), Basket Ball (2-3), Track (2-3-4), Junior-Senior Relay (3).

Richard Thurston Stockbridge

"He is small, but oh my!"

Stocky is the fellow who did so much toward making the Red and Gray a success this year; but more glory falls upon his small shoulders because of his successful management of the football team. When you consider Richie's good work in school you need have no doubts of his future.

Red and Gray Board (2-3-4), Junior Relay (3), Football Manager, Dramatic Club (4).

Signe Linnea Sulin

"Her dark eyes smile constantly"

Although Signe lived quite a distance from here, she managed to get to school fairly early. Signe's favorite saying is "Where's a dance tonight?" She is also very fond of skating. We keep wondering why Signe drives to Gardner when she gets the car out.

Glee Club (3).

Catherine Elizabeth Sullivan

"Through her expressive eyes, her soul distinctly spoke"

Catherine's smiling face and boyish ways can be recognized anywhere. She spends much of her time in Leominster. She is an active member of all the clubs, and is athletically inclined. Sully is famous for her quick, snappy repartee as well as for her ability in getting to school on time, although she may leave home after eight o'clock. She is especially fond of sports and excels in skating.

Dramatic Club, French Club (2-3-4), Debating Club (3), Class Book Committee, Glee Club (4).

Dorothy Lorraine Sullivan

"My talents run in many directions"

Sully, another member of Mac & Co., has been a good pal during her four years at F. H. S. Her free and easy manners have won her many friends not only in school where she has taken part in all activities, but also outside. She is noted for her skill as a debater which she showed in her class on Problems of Democracy.

Track, Volley Ball (2-3), Basket Ball, Debating Club, Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Hockey, Glee Club (3-4).

Edward Sullivan

"The very flower of youth"

Cap'n Eddie combines the virtures of the orator with those of the gridiron star. On the football field Eddie was a fighting leader. In school, he has been president of the Boys' Debating Club for two years and winner of the prize-speaking contest his Junior year. Eddie is a two-letter athlete, starring in track as well as football. He was a marshal, belonged to the Dramatic Club, and was a mainstay of the Class Relay team.

Boys' Debating Club, Dramatic Club (2-3-4), Winner Prize-Speaking Contest, Track, Junior-Senior Relay (3), Football (2-4), Senior Class Play, Class Book Committee (4).

Mabel Gertrude Sunbury

"There is nothing so valuable a thing in nature as a lady's head dress"

Mabel took the Commercial Course. She intends to do office work when she graduates. Beware of your boss, Mabel! We hear that one of Mabel's pet hobbies is automobile rides! She is one of the few girls who have not bobbed their hair.

Helen Margaret Sundstrom

"She is the very pink of courtesy"

Helen worked part-time in the school office and afternoons at the Fitchburg Rubber Co. However, she found time for her lessons and in her marks proved this. She is considered a quiet girl by strangers. Those who know her best can tell you she is always ready for a good time.

John Jacob Syrjala, Jr.

"He ceased; but left so pleasing on their ears,
His voice, that list'ning still they seem'd to hear"

To say that we miss John would not be au fait. The realization of our loss goes beyond that. In fact, since his departure our chief hobby has been debating whether the Art Club, the Debating Club, or the Red and Gray misses him most. 'Thirty sends its best wishes for your success, John!

Palette Club, Debating Club, Red and Gray Board (2), Annual Debate between Boys and Girls. Class Flag Committee (3).

Salvatore Louis Tarara

Sam was one of the daily travelers from the vicinity of Shirley. But his means of transportation was a snappy blue Ford which was the envy of many of his classmates. Sam likes to dance and he can be found at every social affair. He spent his afternoons as clerk in the West Groton general store and postoffice. An electrical engineering school seems to be Sam's future ambition. He is noted for his neat appearance and beaming smile.

Pickles (3), Glee Club (3-4), Advertising Manager of Glee Club, Belle of Bagdad (4).

Gertrude Tater

"There is no knowledge which is not valuable"

Gert is an extremely enthusiastic student. She is especially fond of reading and literature, and was an active member of the French, Dramatic, and Debating Clubs. Gert goes into everything that she undertakes with a great deal of zest and punch, and is eagerly sought for all sorts of duties. Gert was a member of the class ring committte, a member of the Red and Gray board, and was a marshal and councillor.

Dramatic Club, French Club, Debating Club (2-3-4), Class Ring Committee (3), Councillor, Marshal (3-4), Open Meeting of French Club, Red and Gray Board, Class Book Committee (4).

Mary Madeline Taylor

"She liked such society as was quiet, wise, and good"

Mary is a very unusual girl. Not only because she was the highest ranking student in the class, literary chairman of the Red and Gray, and a member of the French, Debating, and Dramatic clubs, but also because she is a very human young lady, and not exclusively a student as one would naturally expect. Look at her picture. There is the Mary her friends know; a cheerful Mary with a gay sense of humor.

Debating Club, French Club, Dramatic Club (2-3), Red and Gray (3-4).

Roland Prentess Taylor

"Still waters run deep"

Roland's red hair and gift for silence are notable. He tells us that he gets a big kick out of football games. But now we'll let you into a real secret—those day-dreams aren't about the girl friend. Aviation is their cause. Righto, Roland?

Blanche Louise Therrien

"My favorite, I may say my only study, is man"

Blanche, another of our pretty girls, could usually be seen tripping along with a smile on her face. She is fond of hiking and tennis. She entered the Tennis Tournament in 1927, and although she did not win the cup, she played some very good games. She plans to go to Business College next year.

Tennis (2).

Frederick Henry Thompson, 3d

"In all thy humors, whether grave or mellow
Thou art such a pleasant fellow"

Wit? Only three letters, but then Freddie is a small man. Whether the occasion be important or trifling, Freddie seasons it with original spice. Throughout our High School years we all have at one time or another, when disheartened, found solace in the company of this carefree, happy-go-lucky young man.

Glee Club (2), Orchestra (2-3-4), French Club (4).

Sylvia Dagmar Tiilikainen

"Why will people worry themselves so?"

Short and sweet! Ofttimes, when one was sauntering leisurely along, a figure appeared in great haste, a flashing smile remained, and the figure disappeared. That was Tillie! Usually in a hurry—but she got there! They say she is very, very fond of dancing and skating.

Dramatic Club, Glee Club, Track (4).

Gertrude Tikkala

"As good as fair, it seemed her joy to work and to give"

Gert is a quiet, unassuming little blonde, a maker of class history. She took her studies seriously, and was an excellent student. She is fond of swimming, dancing, and music, and is an inveterate hiker. Gert was a marshal and a councillor, and belonged to the Dramatic and French Clubs. She is always cheerful and enthusiastic, ever prepared to fall in line and to co-operate; in short, she is one of those enviable people who invariably manage to keep their sunny side up.

Councillor, Ring Committee, French Club (3), Marshal, Dramatic Club (3-4), Editor of Class Book, Secretary of French Club (4).

Leo Verner Toko

"Are you not he that frights the maidens of the villagery?"

A lover, an athlete, and a scholar. And such a scholar! In Math. he doesn't even know whether he knows or not! But in the corridors Leo knows what's what. Besides being a distinct asset to the social side of our school, Leo has also dabbled in basket ball and found time to cultivate the esteem of our supervisor of study, Miss Haskins.

Basket Ball (2-3) Track (4).

Aune Irene Tokoi

"Amiable, clever, and zealous"

If you want a thing done well, get Aune to do it; be it an English assignment or a Red and Gray story, she's always willing. She's quiet and cares very little for self-display. She was continually on the honor list. She skipped her Junior year entirely. Aune has a yearning to return to the Old World and we may in future years see her in a European background.

French Club, Dramatic Club (2-4), Class Book Committee (4).

Ellen Mary Tommila

"Her heart is true as steel"

Ellen is an industrious girl who did well in her studies, and worked every other week in the Safety Fund Bank. Being an all-around sport she enjoys skating, hiking, swimming, and last, but not least, dancing. She appears rather quiet, but really is a most pleasant person to know.

Girls' Hockey Team (3).

Anita Jane Towle

"As merry as the day is long"

Things surely hum when Anita is around. She does not always talk, but once she starts, you might as well raise the white flag. She was very fond of studying and was always seen carrying many books? Anita is interested in sports and is especially fond of moving pictures. She may train to be a dietitian.

Glee Club (3).

Loren Henry Tupper

"O, he dances such a way!"

Loren's red ringlets caused a great deal of controversy at Fitchburg High. We often wonder how he curls them. Rags? Maybe! But for all that, Loren certainly enjoys dancing. Does he ever miss a dance? Of course there's a thunderous "No"! Within a few years, Loren plans to enter Rider College and win many honors which will surely place Shirley on every map.

Annie Ruth Walker

"Kind hearts are more than coronets"

Kindliness, helpfulness, loyalty, are a few of Annie's attributes. It makes no difference when one disturbs her, she is always ready to listen. For six years Annie has been a true Girl Scout, worthy of all those merits she won. As an actress and soloist, Peg certainly has proved herself of great value to the Scouts of Westminster.

Priscilla Warner

"A just deportment, manners graced with ease"

Priscilla's silvery blond hair, sweet face, and dainty manners, have made her a favorite among her classmates. On the whole, she is very, very quiet, but once in a while, quite suddenly, we hear her sweet tinkling laugh. Priscilla was busy every other week helping Miss Dunn. Because of her experience in Fitchburg High School and her fine capabilities, it is inevitable that she will become a splendid stenographer in the future.

Aini Vivian Wartiainen

"Beautiful as sweet;
Young as beautiful"

This little blue-eyed blonde from Westminster made a good record in Spanish for she won the second prize for second year Spanish one year. She is always cheerful and her sweet, smiling face is a welcome sight to see.

Track (3).

Eleanora Fraser West

"A reasoning, self sufficient thing
An intellectual all-in-all"

If you are in doubt about anything of fame, ask Eleanora. If she doesn't know, who does? She has proved a model student. In spite of her spending a great deal of time reading and studying, we know Eleanora devoted much time to the Scouts and the Order of the Rainbow. Her sincerity and understanding have gained her many friends.

Lucile Elizabeth West

"A spirit of the everlasting day, alert, elate, and confident that life is good"

Actor, orator, athlete. She is one of high ideals and loyalty. Not wholly occupied with the problems of the world, she is buoyant and spontaneous, a veritable Robin Hood. We must admit that Lucile is a dreamer, but what does that matter; her good-luck fairy is always near to bring her out on top. Would that we all knew the secret of being "free as the wind".

Dramatic Club, Track (2-3), Basket Ball (2-4), French Club (3), Class Play (4).

Andrew John Whelan

"Laugh with a vast and inextinguishable laughter"

Andrew Whelan is a boy with high ambitions. He was one of our basket ball players and played a fine game. Andrew took an active part in short plays and debates. Because of his genial smile and broad sense of humor, Andy was one of the most popular boys in the school.

Dramatic Club (3), Basket Ball, Class Play (4).

Ronald James Whitmore

"I were but little happy, if I could say how much"

Underneath Red's rather modest exterior, beats the friendliest heart in the world. Contrary to popular belief, flaming locks don't always herald a quick temper. We hear that the opposite sex has no attraction for Ronald, but somehow, we have our doubts.

Junior Relay Team (3).

Earle Stetson Whitney

"I am very fond of the company of ladies"

Earl, though slow in his studies, is canny in his friendships. He tells us his weakness is a woman, but we really don't have to be told. He is frequently seen walking home with a fair member of our class. During his spare time he worked at Kennedy's butter store. He expects to become a big butter and egg man.

Junior Relay Team (3), Football, Baseball.

Judith Wikstedt

"Where did you get those eyes so blue?"

Judy is our beloved blue-eyed, golden-haired sweetheart. Her quiet, unassuming manners and excellent style made her a favorite among all. Judith is one of our finest dancers. At a school dance she can always be found in the midst of a group of boys. Hockey is Judy's favorite sport and she has served admirably as captain of the team. Besides gracing Hudson's store on Saturdays, she lent her services to the school library every other week.

Hockey Team (2-3).

Matilla Matalene Wilder

"The only way to have a friend is to be one"

Quiet and serious seems Matilla, but her bright blue eyes and quick smile belie her ofttimes sober mien. She likes all sorts of sports and what with clerking at Woolworth's we imagine there is little leisure time for Matilla.

Augustus Henry Wiley

"A fine lad with a face as round and full as the moon"

The Band and Orchestra are Gus's hobbies. It takes a big man to play a Sousaphone and Gus easily filled the bill. Though Gus is striving for a musical career, he could just as well be a landscape gardener considering the experience he has obtained from his outside work.

Band (2-3-4), Orchestra (2-3), Manager of Juniors in Junior Relay Team (3), Librarian of Orchestra, History Play (4).

Oliver Henry Williams

"Happy am I: from care I'm free!
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

Oliver's outside work was trying to study. He entertained us much with his harmonica and tap dancing. He enjoys physical culture the most; his ideal of perfect manhood is Apollo. Oliver is setting a high mark for his future, and we hope he will make good.

Dramatic Club, Band (2).

Marjorie Louise Wolff

"Some like work; some like fun. I'm for both"

Tubby, as she is called by her intimate friends, is noted for the dimple in her chin, her chic appearance, and coal black hair. We wonder often whether Marge liked her ride from Shirley every morning. Maybe not. When it came to a football game, Tubby was sure to be there in her blue roadster. She was one of our part-timers and took dictation from Mr. Hubbard every other week. Marjorie certainly enjoys swimming, skating, and, of course, dancing.

Horace Granville Wright

"'Tis better to be brief than tedious"

Horace certainly didn't bother anyone in school. He went about his work quietly, without any deviations from his course. Indeed, we doubt that even a girl could stop him. He was interested in gym work and stamp collecting. He liked track, especially running, for he was one of the boys who did so well against the Seniors last year in the Relay.

CAST APPEARING ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Senior Play

"Merry Andrew," a comedy by Lewis Beach was capably presented by the class of 1930 at the Grove Street Theatre, April 23 and 24.

SYNOPSIS

Andrew Aiken, a druggist, encouraged by his family, sells his drug-store and becomes a man of leisure. But he soon discovers this new life does not suit him. He becomes irritable and ill-tempered.

His younger daughter Sue elopes with the wealthy Terry Ellis in order to escape the home life which her father makes unbearable for her.

Even serious Janet, in love with Colin Milburn, rebels against her father's management of family affairs.

Janet and her mother secretly plan to get Andrew to take back his store. Andrew also secretly plans to purchase the store, for he realizes that here with his old pals he can be happy and merry once more.

The intentions of both sides are revealed by Norcross, the present owner of the store who has been consulted by Aiken, his wife, and daughter. Andrew finally repurchases his old store, and gets another into the bargain.

SEPTEMBER

3. Back at school. The Sophomores were on an exploring expedition. Wonder what they discovered?
4. No books, no homework, but it won't be long now! Will I do them?
6. Pictures of two famous High School graduates (Judge James Thomas Malone, F. H. S., 1884, and Col. Edward S. Malone, F. H. S., 1893) were presented to the school.
9. The full length periods began today. Were they long? Oh boy, I'll say so!
10. The Senior election results are as follows: President, Bob Arnott; vice-president, Doris Pender; secretary, Dorothy Geiger; treasurer, Stephen Woodbury.
12. The little Sophomores had an assembly. Oh, what a drag!
13. Friday, the thirteenth. It speaks for itself!
16. We were greatly grieved at hearing of the sudden death of Miss Stratton.
18. Senior chorus today. The boys got rather rough. I apologize for them.
19. Whoopee! First Senior assembly. The class officers were introduced and each made a speech.
20. I wonder when Eddie Sullivan broke his seat if he was practising football in the English class.
21. First football game. We won!
23. The first Monday morning assembly was held. A tribute was paid to Miss Stratton.
25. The Juniors elected the following officers: President, Veikko Pasanen; vice-president, Mary Cassidy; secretary, Betty Drake; treasurer, Laurence Scanlon.
26. Junior assembly. The officers spoke.
27. Senior chorus today and I thought I was going to have a nice study period! But then—Doris Pender and Leo McGuirk were some song leaders! The way Leo wiggled that pencil!
28. Another victory in football. F. H. S., 14; Worcester North, 0.
30. Class dues today. I ought to pat myself on the back for remembering to bring my money.

OCTOBER

1. The Seniors chose Bergroth as class photographer. I'm in no great hurry to see my picture.
3. John Allaire and Bob Arnott seen looking at some of the Norcross pictures in the hall. The first time in history anyone has been seen looking at them!
4. A rally today before the Medford game! That was some speech Ed Sullivan made.
5. Medford won, but how our boys fought!
7. What a feeling when you have to go on the platform to speak. Oh!
8. Gee, this is the life—doing experiments in Chem. in groups instead of alone!
10. We didn't have to come to school this morning till 9.45. Here's hoping this will happen more often so we can get our beauty sleep. The reason for this fortunate incident was the burying of a box of documents at Upper Common to be opened in 2029. See you there!
12. Columbus Day would fall on Saturday!
14. My home room has started having its pictures taken. The students, I mean.
15. A new rule for passing. Up the girls' stairway, down the boys'! It certainly makes us do some thinking.
16. Senior chorus today. Mr. Bouvier said that songs used to be written for the heart, but are now written for the feet. True enough!
17. Senior Color Day. Isn't blue and gold wonderful?
18. A snappy football rally. New pep, new cheers, new music! Wasn't it a grand and glorious feeling?
21. Marks go in this week. I wonder why all the frowns?
22. A special assembly was held, and I didn't go. Am I sorry? Yes! Speeches, and moving pictures!
23. Junior chorus. Can you hear them warble?
24. Bosk's Musical Maniacs, recently escaped from East Gardner, performed at the Junior assembly today.
25. Report cards are out! Well, anyway, the suspense is over.
28. Another chance to show your worth. A promise is a promise, so I'm for better marks.
29. Well, the girls are at it again. What? Dusting the assembly hall floor of course.
30. Big crash in the stock market! Mr. Hubbard has to borrow a dime from Mr. Howard for lunch.
31. The Seniors are fast fading out of sight. The Sophs had chorus yesterday.

NOVEMBER

1. Three cheers—a holiday! Teachers' Convention. They ought to have more of them.
4. Will wonders ever cease? All my lessons done!
6. I guess the teachers have a heart after all. No homework!
7. A Sophomore Assembly! Where do we Seniors come in?
11. Notice to girls! Watch out for slivers in Gym. The floors are rough.
12. A busy day. Oh, for Aladdin's Lamp. My lessons would have been done.
13. At last, Senior chorus! And popular songs too.
14. Senior assembly. Good things do come at the same time.
15. Another week gone. I had better start saving up my pennies for Christmas.
19. At last I received an invitation to the daily Tea in '26. Many friends were present.
20. Embarrassing moments. Bea Allen broke her beads in class.
21. The boys heard the Diary of a Real Boy. Now they're wondering what the Diary of a Real Girl is like.

22. Another happy day. No homework!
25. The first of the educational Posters appeared today. This read, "Who said Can't".
27. Enthusiastic? I should say! Some football rally before the Leominster Game.
28. Oh, shucks! Leominster did have luck. Score, 6 to 0.
29. A day to recuperate after a football game, a turkey dinner, and a Thanksgiving dance.

DECEMBER

2. It must be quite the fashion to have a cold by all appearances! Red noses? Of course!
4. Notice: "Christmas vacation is from Dec. 20 to July 2." Whoopee!
5. What a shame yesterday's notice was wrong. Who could have made the mistake?
9. General assembly. Pleasant news for all! The tests for the second marking are to begin. Gaffeney and McCormack are beginning to assume temporary airs of seriousness.
11. "What shall I do after I graduate?" is the mournful cry, almost a wail, heard throughout the Senior rooms.
12. Mr. Perkins demonstrates a machine to his chem. classes. It is perfectly all right except for one thing, as he says, it doesn't work!
13. What a lucky day Friday the thirteenth turned out to be! I was absent from school. Did I miss anything?
16. Featuring exams. Cast of characters—All classes.
19. At a time like this, in a place like this, les plaisanteries of Billy Burns and his cool green sweater are a comfort.
20. Time: winter. Scene: F. H. S. What is going on? Pupils departing for a 7 day leave. Purpose: To bring back smiles effaced by the little white cards given habitually every eight weeks.

JANUARY

2. Let's start the new year right by stock-taking as Mr. Chalmers suggested.
3. The Juniors received their rings. While pretty, they can't beat ours!
6. Over 200 cases of tardiness in December. I don't wonder when I recall those slippery days.
7. Have you seen the booklets Miss Brown's English classes are making? Gosh, I wonder how chances are of going on one of those tours!
8. With what fervor the boys sang, "Three Blind Mice," in chorus today.
10. The "Holy City" is to be presented again. This was the announcement made at the general assembly. All with talent were asked to remain. I rushed out!
14. I guess the week end was too strenuous because I was late this Monday morning.
16. I didn't walk to school this morning. No siree. I slid—and how!!!
17. Well the new styles are slowly making their appearance in school. Points and whatnot?
20. The play presented by the Commercial students proved very entertaining. Mr. Holt provided the humor.
23. Senior assembly. Congratulations to Frances Allen for her march.
27. I hear that the Commercial students are getting ready to reap the honors for the English Essay!
29. It is reported that Mr. Butler is bothered by knocks—the steampipes.
31. The Mid-Winter Dramatic cup was awarded to the Juniors.

FEBRUARY

3. Only thirty cents left in the bank because I purchased a class book today. But Mary Taylor has only three pennies left!
4. My day of days spoiled by an invitation to the social gathering in 26.
5. Strenuous work on my English essay sent me off to sleep.
7. Mr. Butler asks questions to make the pupils think, but the questions make them thick instead.
12. The Seniors gave a very entertaining musical program today.
13. Fire drill. A young lady was inclined to be rather slow so Mr. Howard opened a window in 47 and asked her to jump. Considerate?
14. Valentine Day. Mr. Hubbard receives a valentine from his Sophomore Latin class.
17. Examinations are a rage! What kind of rage?
18. Talk about new fads! Miss Dunn requests the pupils to mount their maps on cardboard.
20. History sharks have an opportunity to answer "Who am I?" in assembly to-day.
21. 'Tis vacation again! Hooray!

MARCH

3. The new blackboard method of advertising the Red and Gray is great. I read the advertisements every day.
4. Miss Collins must appreciate the manner in which the girls use the Indian clubs. Each girl has original ideas—and how!!
5. If Miss Haskins's socials grow any more popular, she'll have to find larger quarters.
7. The most popular question of the College Course students, "Have you started your Senior essay yet?"
10. The singing that penetrates the halls of learning during chorus periods is good to hear.
11. Maude McGee (translating in Latin). "By Jupiter, there he goes!!"
13. What—oh what—is this world coming to? Miss Sawyer threw her salary check into the wastebasket.
18. Interesting Senior assembly. Dr. Pease spoke.
20. The French Club meeting proved to be a success. And the lollypops were delicious! (By the way, Gert Tater had two.)
21. The Seniors are diligently rehearsing "Merry Andrew." Oh where will I get enough money so I can go?
24. Elvie Siipola and Frances Allen have composed our class song. I'm dying to hear it.
25. A holiday! Three cheers! Teachers' visiting day. But I bet the pupils also took advantage of the day to visit the movies.
28. Movies in Chemistry. Oh! the beaming faces of the pupils at such an overwhelming surprise.

APRIL

1. April Fool's Day. I was fooled only twice. Not so bad!
3. This is too good to be true! All the periods were shortened, and chorus period was an hour long.
7. It was a joy to look at the smiling faces of those pupils who were dismissed after the fourth period to rehearse for the "Holy City."
8. The "Holy City" turned out a great success.
9. What's this we hear? Last night at the "Holy City" performance when the girls were asked to rise, a young gentleman jumped up also. Well! Well!

10. At the French Club meeting an enjoyable lecture on Paris was given by Mlle. Lina Gremillot.
14. Gold F's were given to twenty-one Seniors, Friday.
17. What an embarrassing moment when I walked in late into the wrong room! I quickly made an exit while the amused class tittered!
21. Oh, what a Chem. test! I hate to think of the results.
23. The Senior Class play! It was a truly great performance.
24. Another cast reaped honors in "Merry Andrew."
25. The Washington trip for some, but vacation for all!

MAY

5. Mr. Chalmers read us some old reports of the school committee of Ashburnham. The teachers were paid $14 a month!
6. Now that the Senior Latin class has been divided, we surely have to do our share of reciting with only five members left!
7. Miss Gifford has made the announcement that marks in the History books will cost 5c each. I wondered why the sudden appearance of erasers.
10. Senior May Breakfast. Even Mr. Dooling was there. I heard it was his first appearance at this social affair.
12. My! Doesn't Clayton Cleverly look ever so dignified with his glasses?
13. A science assembly today, but the Seniors were not allowed to go. I did see the darling (?) white mice!
15. An entertaining program of readings was given by Mrs. Christabel Kidder at the Red and Gray assembly.
16. The Senior girls chose their graduation dresses. "Do you like the dress?" was the question heard the rest of the day.
19. Miss Fuller treated her French class to ice cream cones. They were great! Even Richard Lowe!! took one although he doesn't like them, as he says. But then they were free.
21. Is Earl Brunt starting the new collegiate fad by running around in his shorts?
23. Richard Stockbridge and Manfredo Rossi have held a conference, and have come to the conclusion that pale yellow graduation suits for the boys would be very becoming.
26. Stephen Woodbury was chosen class speaker. You have our sympathy, Steve.
28. Katherine Brown (in French class): "Que refers back to woman which is feminine." My, I never knew that before.
29. Here's wishing the class of 1930 the best of luck!

Class Song

To you, Fair Alma Mater,
We sing our praises true,
Your teachings ever to retain
Above the Gold and Blue.
You have brought us on and upward
Teaching us the just and right;
We will carry on forever,
Trusting to your guiding light.

Out of the age-old splendor,
Out of the sunlit sky,
Thro' fields of purest azure
Gleams faith in purity.
Sacred shall our colors ever
Wave in bright array on high,
We're hoping and we're striving
Our own deeds to glorify.

Upward then and ever onward
O'er seas of joy or strife
With honor, love, and loyalty
As symbols in our life.
Every task for us to gladden,
Bright'ning more and more the way,
We will keep our shields well burnished
For the conquest of each day.

Senior Play, "Tea for Two," Banned

Mayor Casimo Forbids Production in Grove Street Hall

Mayor Casimo today startled local Thespians by forbidding the production of Mary Taylor's famous play, "Tea for Two", which was to be given as the annual offering of the Senior Class of the High School. This play has been given with marked success in many states and hamlets of Middlesex and Worcester counties. It ran three nights at Sterling Junction; a whole week at Ayer; and two nights and a matinee at Townsend Harbor. The mayor said, "I regard this play as deleterious to the moral and physical health of our youth. It is well known that tea contains an injurious substance called tannin. Furthermore the play will lead our young people to adopt the effeminate and time-wasting practise of afternoon tea. It is also un-American as it is widely practised by the bally English, you know."

Miss Elizabeth Stearns, leading lady of the company, was highly indignant when seen by the reporter. "To think that the inhabitants of Fitchburg will not have the opportunity of seeing this great play and particularly my art which has been applauded by the cosmopolites of Ashby and other metropolitan centers of our country positively makes me ill." and madame burst into tears.

The following among others have signed a huge protest which will be presented shortly to the mayor: Miss Scanlon, Modiste; Judge Oinonen; Mr. Adler of Adler, Burns, and Cooke, Counsellors-at-law; Miss Ada Houghton of Sullivan and Houghton, Dry Goods and Notions; Miss Marjorie Ferris of Fitchburg's Fine Furriers.

Stage and Screen Chatter

Word has been received that Paul Smith has passed a successful screen test, and will shortly be seen with Silver King.

"The Bustin' Broncho" featuring Cowboy Williams, was recently released by the R. C. A. studios and will play at Rossi's Universal. Watch for it.'

Miss Irene Dufort will have the lead in "The Campus Flirt." There is also a small dog in the play.

LOWELL AND CHALMERS PURCHASE PLAYGROUND

Plan Recreation Field for Kiddies

Mr. Richard Lowell and Mr. James Chalmers, Jr., have placed their heads together and at last thought of an idea. Strange, but true. The gentlemen have purchased recently a tract of land back of the old City Stables where our young surveyors hope to erect some sort of a recreational field for the children of F. H. S. and Seniors. An iron stadium having a capacity of 99,999 people is in view. Parking space will also be available. A 10 mile dirt track for future relay races will be started soon. The football diamond will contain one half of the field, and the baseball gridiron the other. A tennis court will be thrown in here and there to fill space.

Several local and out of town contractors have given their bids, as follows:

McAuliff and Moran (local), $15.873; Colpitts (Shirley), $18.267; McCormack and Gaffeney (West Fitchburg), $14.693; Shane and Rosen (local), $20.989.

THE BEARS ARE LOOSE AGAIN

(Special to the Scrap Book)

ASHBY FOUR CORNERS, Feb. 29—There was another wild session of the market today with prices of nearly all stocks tumbling according to a report received at the local office of Lowell and Thompson, Brokers, at Boyle Court.

Cleverly's Fly Traps Inc. fell 15 points; Cons. Buttonholes, 10; Swedish Laundries Com. (Sullivan and Bicoules, Props.) 5; Dignam Oil, 12; Tar Hill Utilities, 38.

The Street was filled with sold-out bulls among whom were recognized Earl Brunt and James Chalmers, the boy spender of the South Side.

At 1:45, the suspension of the firm of McCormack and McKenna was announced. The firm has been the backer of the Fitchburg Model (an imitation of the real thing) Airways Co., John Bosk, Pres.

Notables Gather at Gala Opening of Bodanza's Night Club

Many of our prominent citizens and residents last night attended the formal opening of our new night club in the Majestic block.

"Texas Guinan" Ashe, the club's charming hostess, greeted one and all with extended arms and good wishes for a happy new year.

The club was beautifully decorated in green and pink set off by black and blue furnished by the patrons. Music was furnished by John Bosk, the boy crooner and his Moaning Maniacs. Bob Arnott assured the club his heartiest support every Saturday night after work.

The Special noveltics of the evening were as follows:

1. Minuet in X composed especially for the occasion by Madame Frances Zippy Bang Crash played by Gus Wiley and his piccolo.
2. Orchestral selection—omitted by request.
3. Song: duet "Lover Come Back to Me." (Ed Sullivan and Florence Daggett.)
4. Tap Dance by Loren Tupper.

Among those present we noticed at one table Gertrude Bills attired smartly in a black velvet gown trailing the floor, with an ostrich feather artistically draped on her side. Near by sat Leonard Adler dressed in a shiny black frock coat. Seated beside him was Sally Aalto, who, to set off her blonde beauty, was gowned in an exquisite tone of garnet. Harold J. Burns in trim evening clothes of black and white made the fourth at this table. Others present were of no consequence.

HIGHLIGHTS OF "TEA FOR TWO"

The Author: Miss Mary Taylor who has always been noted among the literati for her volubility and self-assertiveness.

Subject: The censorship committee appointed by Mayor Casimo is Stephen Woodbury, Maude McGee, and Eleanora West who agree with the mayor in regarding tea drinking as highly effeminate, if not inervating.

Summary: The case will be brought before a jury of twelve men good and true, consisting of Robert Anderson, and others of less importance.

SENIORS HOLD ASSEMBLY

President Arnott Presides at Varied Program

The Senior class of our local alma mammy, F. H. S. held their final assembly last Thursday in the basket ball court. Amid cheers and applause Pres. Arnott opened the meeting while silence reigned over the throng.

The first number on the program was a dance by Cowboy Williams from baek yonder.

The second attempt was made by Elliot Buskey (our own Rudy Vallee) who sang the "Crossroads."

And next Primo Carnera Allaire entertained with the cornet. His selection was, "Kill Me Again," on the Double Flute.

Before closing Pres. Arnott announced that "The Mid-Summer Concert" would take place at the City Stables at 8 o'clock Friday.

LOCALS

The Don't Worry Club which meets with fits and spasms will convene tonight with Elvie Siipola, the worthy president.

Francis McAuliff, formerly of F. H. S., has accepted a position on Charlie Darling's farm in order that he might count the feathers on a chicken.

Kresge's store will be closed Saturday which means a number of girls of this vicinity will not eat next week.

Billy Burns is saving Good Will Soap wrappers so he can get a rifle free. Don't throw away your wrappers. Give them to William.

Helen Johnson will exhibit this year at the artists' colony at Fort Pond. Here only the élite of the artists' guild assemble each year to show their masterpieces.

Tony Casimo, gifted with a dazzling smile, has accepted a position with the Listerine people advertising their fragrant product.

Mr. Elliot Buskey, who received his famous hot-dog training at Whalom last summer, has joined forces with Mr. Frank Leger. Mr. Leger received his training under the skilled supervisor of the H. S. lunches, Miss McIntyre.

Shirley Society Girl Buys New Car

Miss Marjorie Wolff of the Shirley Downs has purchased the latest Ford model. It is equipped with 2 extra strong bumpers which Marjie of all people needs. The body is a delicate nile green with pink trimmings. Her initials are done in purple; on each mudguard there is a splash of red. All in all, it is one of the most marvelous creations on the Shirley roads.

Review of Current Magazines

The latest issue of the Red and Gray has just appeared on the news-stands. As was usual for the past year the book has a cover with some sheets of white paper within, some defaced with printer's ink, and some left blank in their pristine purity. We prefer the latter personally as those pages are less of a strain on the intellect.

We will pass over the advertisements as we are not interested in Kollege Kut Klothes or ankle sox. The leader for the month's issue is a story, "Ribbons" by Wendell Nye. It is a story of the loves of a tug boat captain and has a beautiful arrangement of commas, periods, and asterisks. The poets' corner presents three offerings of equal merit—all bad. A rondeau by Billy Burns on "Looking out of 26"; a rondel by Lucille French and a villanelle by Katherine Brown on "The Ingredients of Vegetable Soup."

The Athletic section has some breezy accounts by the department editor Tauno Salminen of a chess game between the local team of Robert Anderson, Clayton Cleverly, Veikko Marshall and that representing Lunenburg High which is expected to end next September, together with pictures of Duncan MacLean, local checker champion and the play-off between William Gillis representing the Seniors and Howard Rome of the Junior class in the horseshoe pitching tournament.

A new department in this issue is the True Story with feature articles on "Selling Gas," by George Dignam; "How I Create a Style," by Judith Wikstedt; "My Histrionic Triumphs," by Leo McQuirk; "The Charm of Fine Manners," by Elvie Siipola.

Highlights on the Washington Trip

By Roguish Ruth and Elfin Elvie

Bob Houghton showed us his ability as a marathon runner for on the trip to the Luray Caverns when the bus had engine trouble, he spied some violets along the roadside and decided to pick them. In the meantime the bus started off with Bob left behind. He ran about 300 yards in hot pursuit of the bus.

One afternoon Ruth Morgner, being very tired, stayed at the hotel while the rest of the party went to Annapolis. She slept all afternoon and when she decided to go down to the lobby, she found the door loeked on the outside. The chambermaid had locked her in.

On the boat trip from Providence to New York, Bob Houghton brought from home his lunch, which eonsisted of hard boiled eggs and the like. One egg remained from the lunch which Bob saved until his return trip on the boat, one week later, when he devoured it.

Some unknown person asked Nunzie Celona if he were the porter because he was always seen carrying 3 or 4 suit cases.

Winona MacKay broke a spring in her bed as she lightly hopped into it.

Clayton Cleverly was a member of the I. O. U. list at the end of his journey. He hadn't figured on meeting people from Newton.

Some of us were playing bridge while on the train. Several cards were missing which were later found in the cuff of Nunzie's trousers. So that's the kind of a boy he is!

Many souvenirs were collected on the trip. Among them was a set of half a dozen soup spoons from the different hotels. Fond remembrances!

Bob Anderson did a lot of corresponding. Post cards at the hotels were free.

Two notes on food when on the steamer Lexington: please remember that "th' only kind o' coffee we serve on this 'ere boat is black coffee." No! —And fish?—No Ma'am, we'se havin' trout tonight.

Sailing down the Potomac
With eamp stools for deck chairs
We saw the scen'ry and stroll'd on deck
And found a pianner below the stairs.
We also found a bar at which
We got some salt and spread it.
The floor, I say, was sliprish
And—we tripped a light fantastic!

If, on a stormy night, you are awakened by a sound of a bang above, and the next moment someone's frame is hanging over the upper berth, it's usually your bunk-mate. Ask Ruth.

Did you know Bob Cushing's telephone number was 281 Green Apple?

You've heard of pajama parties. How about this? A pajama gab-gab. When staying at a hotel, stick your head out of the window, call or whistle for a friend across the way. The results are amazing. You should hear Frannie Allen's voice at night.

And Annapolis! The line of women, including Marj, taking pictures of the beautiful young men is interminable, but somehow diminishes after the aforementioned change to high waters, dinky caps, and soiled jerseys.

Imagine our surprise, when we walked into the Pan American Building to find Mr. Herbert P. Sullivan already there talking to the cuckoos.

Always carry caramels—not camels. They are good weights. If you must communicate with someone — even from an airplane, tie a caramel to the missile and—let it drop. One warning —don't hit any unnecessary objects on the way down. A list of the latter may be secured from Esther.

WHY IS IT?

That you think of the right answers just after handing in your paper?
That you laugh and the class laughs with you, but you stay after school alone?
That a perfectly good composition comes back with so many scars of battle?
That the teacher never fails to look at you in the very act?
That when you are late for school your shoe lace breaks?
That you think you are the smartest in class, but teacher thinks differently?
That you think you have killed the exam. when the teacher marks it an E?

BELIEVE IT OR NOT.

Freddy Thompson uses green ink because it matches the majority of his ties.
Room 26 was once a recitation room.
Johnny McCormack has grown 12/13 of an inch during his stay in F. H. S.
All the spats being displayed about F. H. S. were not purchased at a fire sale.

SCRAMBLED SLOGANS

"Hot dogs from contented bulls."
"For the gums"—A good set of teeth.
"Time to retire"—When you meet a striped kitty with halitosis.
"Four out of five have 'em"—Raccoon coats.
"When better cars are made"—I won't have one.
"Beware of the pink toothbrush"—Purple ones are more in style.
"Everywhere and on everything"—Dust.
